

2013 AND BEYOND
Continuing the Shift into Oneness
June 2013 Event
Preview Call #1 of 2

May 22, 2013

With

Franco DeNicola and
Antonia Hagens, Masterpiece Life

Antonia (“A”)

Franco (“F”)

A This is a preview call for an event we are hosting on June 8 and 9, 2013, called “2013 and Beyond, Continuing the Shift into Oneness.” This call is one of two calls we will be having so that people can get a sense of what the event will be like.

A Change is happening. And there’s more and more that everybody can do to facilitate the change and to be the change.

A One of the things we do to facilitate is offer Clearings. And as you do the Clearings, you are assisting the mass consciousness to lift veils. And that makes change going forward much easier for everyone. So please do continue to do the Clearings as often as you feel guided and whichever ones you feel guided to do.

A And speaking of change...there is a peaceful March Against Monsanto being organized worldwide this month, and this will help bring to light the fact that seed and life belongs to everyone...they are not something to be patented and “owned” by only a very powerful few. Do you have anything that you comment about that, Franco?

F Yes. People are getting to the point where they are realizing that we are here at this point in time when we need to look at everything that we’ve separated, allocated, and so forth, and given power to certain individuals, groups and so forth where they can dictate our journey. Now, as you were saying, this will be peaceful because it is not a scenario where we need to fight the opposing aspect of things.

F But this whole thing is just showing that people are getting to the point where they are saying, “Wait a minute here!” And it’s not only seeds or anything of that nature that has been controlled and manipulated by certain individuals, but anything and everything on the planet. So that we restore...and what we’re doing now is pushing it to the max to the point where we finally say, "Enough is enough! We've had this experience, we're fully done with it, and now we're choosing to go back to our natural state."

F And our natural state at this point in time is that everybody has full access to everything and no one owns anything or any specific individual in any way shape or form...so that we are all sharing amongst each other.

F Because anything that's on the planet, anything that's projected on this planet is for every single soul that has come here. And as much as we played the game of separation and had the game of ownership and control and manipulation and everything of that nature and creating that reality, this is still kind part of the whole experience.

F But we're done with that. And that's what part of the change is. So people are coming together.

F And the reason we say peaceful is because it's not about seeing them as evil ones or whatever. They are playing a role...that we've asked them to play...and that is to continue to show that the game we've been playing that someone has to have power over someone else is still alive, to some degree, because we're still playing with it. But we're coming to the point where we're saying, "Enough of this! We're done with that part of it."

F And it's great because it provides a much more powerful confirmation for people to see that things are changing. This wasn't happening before, and you know that. Whatever was going on, people's reaction would be, "Oh well, that's the way it is. This is the way of life," and whatever. Now people are looking at it and saying, "No, No, No, No, No. This doesn't feel right. This doesn't resonate. We have equal rights to everything and everyone on the planet has equal rights to everything. We're all here together to play in this playground. We're all here to share. We're all here to support one another. We're not responsible for one another. But just allow everybody equal access to play and to experience."

F So this is part of the changes going on...all of this. Even the acknowledgement and knowledge that people are getting about all the different systems in place. And, really, the point here is we're just seeing that, "OK. This is the game that was played. Now how do we change it?"

F And we go from there.

F And (events like that) is a good way to connect with like-minded people who support each other. Because a lot of times we feel so alone and feel like we're the only ones going down this path, even though you might hear about others here and there. But when you get together with groups like that (and I'm not saying that's a must), you tend to see and feel the energy of others. And you support yourself by doing it and say, "Yes. I'm not the only one who feels this way." And you feel more supported in that regard.

F And with respect to the “2013 and Beyond” event we are having next month, basically anyone who participates basically becomes a transmitter/receiver to affect the whole planet. So no matter where you are in the world, even if you can be there in person, you will be connected and will play a very vital role in the changes that are occurring. And we create a connection, too, so that anyone who participates later by listening to the recordings...and this is mainly for the processes and Activations that we will be doing but it also relates to the information that will be shared. As there’s a change in each person who participates (either in person or online or by listening to the recordings later) and who is affected, it will, in one way or another, affect the collective. So the more people involved the more the collective is affected.

F And everything that I’ve sensed about the event tells me that it will be very powerful. Both for the individual and for the collective.

A Yes. And the event is being held in preparation for the new energies that are coming in on August 8, 2013, when 4th Dimensional consciousness will be fully anchored in.

A But we’ve had quite a few questions come in about how people are feeling right now. For example, chronic pain, feeling energy in the chakras very intensely, dreams changing a lot and the intensity of dreams, and what’s it’s like to be in the 4th Dimension. So why don’t we take a quick look at that now, before we move on.

F A lot of the things that are going on right now...like you were saying with people having sensations in the physicality with chronic pain and ailments coming up to the surface and so forth. Some people may have had pain and discomfort for a long period of time. But the only reason the pain is there is because, at some point in time, we agreed and, really, just created that whole experience of having that pain...for a very specific purpose. At some point in time, the pain may have originally started off to create a balance at the soul level...something which many people have called a “karmic balancing.”

F And when I talk about karmic balancing...and I just want to be a little bit more specific about that...What happens is that in each and every lifetime we’ve had in the past, we were playing with the karmic grid. And basically with that, anything that we’ve experienced in one lifetime we usually try to create a balance point to experience the opposite in another lifetime. And it was a way that the soul actually got the opportunity to experience two sides of everything that it created within itself.

F Now in some lifetimes the soul never really experienced any pain or didn’t experience a life where they didn’t understand something of some sort. And then in the next lifetime they would create something that would be a lot more challenging with the opposite aspect. It was just to give them an opportunity to learn from it.

F A lot of this shifted basically at the end of 1986 to the beginning of 1987 when we had The Convergence take place. However, there are still people who have held onto the karmic energy at the mind level of, “I’m in pain. I need to carry pain,” or something of that sort. So that’s one part of it.

F But realize right now that it still stays in place until we clear that part of it. And when we talk about clearing it, it's getting to the point where we say, "OK. Do I really need this to move forward? Do I really need this to keep me at a certain vibration, at a certain frequency, at a certain state of consciousness so that I can actually do some other work? Or am I, in some way, just caught in the fact of believing or caught in the fact or this pattern where I'm going to have to have this pain? Or have I bought into the whole idea that pain is something that is "good"? Because there's people who will hold onto that as their only method to salvation...that they need to suffer in order for them to "deserve" move forward, or some illusion of that nature. Or the fact that something outside of us is projecting pain. Or that we're attached to certain outcomes and so forth around us.

F So these are all there coming about...and I've only named a few...coming about for us to look at it.

F But the pain itself is either being utilized at this point in time for something of some sort to keep us on a path where it helps us.

F Or we're just hanging onto it until we coming to the realization, "Well, do I really need this any longer, and can I let it go?"

F But if we judge it and put a lot of power into it or we start to feel ourselves incapable because of it and so forth, and we start to change what we really want to do, then the pain may stay there until you get to the state where pain has no effect over you. It doesn't matter what hurts or doesn't hurt or what is going on, "I am choosing from this moment on to experience life to the fullest! So if I want to go to the park and play, then that's what I'm going to do. And if I can't run as fast I would really like to run at this point in time because of certain pain, I'm still going to show up and I'm going to walk or do whatever I choose...whatever that may be...and still play."

F And really get to the point of neutrality about pain. To the point of neutrality of what we've defined pain to be.

F Because pain is really just a sensation...an intense sensation...but just a sensation nonetheless.

F But we create everything. There is nothing outside of us. Even though there might be encodements that create pain or whatever, we still have to activate that aspect of it.

F But when we have no judgment about it, when we're completely in a state where we just flow with things regarding that, it starts to shift. It starts to shift. And if it doesn't serve, it won't.

F Some pain or certain intense illness within the physicality is there because it is serving others where we've made an agreement to play a role.

F But that is also transformable, because it doesn't mean that we need to "stay there" until everybody gets whatever they need. Because sometimes some people in pain may have some people around them who are very concerned and worry about them. Until the person who is worried learns that they don't "need" to worry, that the scenario is perfect, whatever it is, and that the person who is worried can change it at any point in time. So when the soul who has agreed to play the role of someone in pain no longer needs to play that role, it becomes easier to let it go.

F But that doesn't mean that if the person who is worried is not learning, you are stuck with that experience of pain. Because, ultimately, at the soul level, you can choose. "OK. Do I still need to play this role? They're not 'getting it,' but maybe they'll get by some other method. But I'm choosing to let go of pain." And then let it go.

F So, right now, with all the changes going on, yes, people are getting all types of interesting ailments.

F A lot of it is to clear any judgements about any fears around it.

F It's also about certain energies and so forth that are coming through from the past where we have pain and judge it and mask it over with medications and things of that nature, or that we left the physicality in a previous lifetime because we couldn't endure the pain...or, rather, accept it for what it was. So now it's coming up to be in a natural state of neutrality and we can be, "OK, this is a very intense, sensorial experience. But I'm still going to do what I want to do even if it limits me in one way or another. That's fine. But I'm going to keep going and stretching it further." And you'll see that that stuff will clear up.

F And that also reflects on all kinds of other things that are coming up within ourselves...including emotions...which is the same thing. Do we need to be emotional? Do we need to be caught up in emotions? No. Emotions are great and natural and everything else but, at this point in time, it's allowing us to be OK with the emotions and experience them.

F Because that's one of the biggest things: we judge emotions. We judge them. We're afraid of them. And so forth. Fear is an emotion. And if we react in fear...and many people are afraid of the fear itself, and that emotion.

F The thing is to be OK with whatever.

F We came here to have a sensorial experience. Do we need to get stuck in one particular modality of sensorial experience? No, not at all. However, we're not here to judge and compare one sensorial experience over the other, saying, "OK, I want only pleasant things." Well, what is "pleasant"? That is a classification, a definition that we've put into it. Every experience is perfect. Every experience is a magnificent creation. But if we have judgment about it, if we have definitions about it, then we say, "Well I want only pleasant experiences." If that's a lesson you have to learn where you don't need to judge and compare anything and an experience is an experience, and I don't have to push away from one thing in order to be drawn to something else, then you're going to have those experiences until you're done. And it's like, "OK. Everything perfect. Everything's good.

I'm going to play with whatever." Then certain things don't need to be.

F So then you can flow through anything and everything without having any of it having any power over you.

F So these are some of the reasons some of this is playing out for us.

F Now, does it mean that we are going into 4th Dimensional consciousness that we're going to have it with more intensity? No. The soul is choosing to go to 4th Dimensional consciousness and then 5th Dimensional consciousness, so it's going to do whatever's necessary at this point in time to bring everything to the maximum so that we can clear up stuff and we can let go of unfinished business. So we can let go of patterns, programs, emotions, different things that are keeping us in a 3-D world.

F Because what is a 3-D world? It's a world where we relate with our physicality and our world as our own reality, and nothing more. Where we are not connected with that Essence of ourselves.

F In 4th and 5th Dimensional consciousness, you're more aware of Who You Are. You're more aware of the fact that you're more than your physicality and you're on this planet to play with the physicality.

F So if we are caught up in emotions, if we are caught up with judgement, if we're caught up different dramatic scenarios and so forth, we are still playing in a 3-D world. And what's going to happen? Things are going to play out, as per your soul's desire for its highest good to be free from that, events, situations, circumstances, intensities of all forms to allow that to shift from you.

F So that you can actually go into 4th Dimensional consciousness where you are no longer caught up in any of that. So those scenarios will be created so that you can get it done. And that's what's really going on.

F So as a desire of the soul it says, "Yes. I want to participate. I want to move ahead." So then, yes, it may seem that way that there's all these nice little, exciting, powerful things coming into our lives at that point. But they are not there to indicate that, "I need to go through this suffering, pain and intensities in order to go into 4th Dimensional consciousness." No. It's saying, "Well, I'm utilizing these things as much as possible because of where we're at."

F We can flow from 3rd to 4th to 5th with ease. Without having any intensities.

F However, we've created a pattern from all our incarnations and, specifically, from this incarnation and all the connections that we've made with others around us, that in order for us to make any progress that there's certain things we need to experience. And they need to be there in a certain form: suffering, sacrifice, at all that. So we may create those patterns and we need to break those patterns.

F And when I say we need to “break” those patterns, the soul is doing everything possible to get your experience from it and then to give you an opportunity to let it go.

F So as we’re shifting, you’re going to find a lot more intense things coming along if we’re stuck and holding onto things.

F But it doesn’t need to be intense. That’s the thing I want everyone to know!

F We don’t have to learn from pain.

F This is one of the things that occurred with this shift. We no longer need polarity to learn from. We no longer need to experience polarity in order to shift from it.

F You can observe things...true. Even with observation you can make adjustments. Through your own inner guidance you can make adjustments. Remember, there is nothing right or wrong, good or bad. But if we’re done with something and we are ready to align with where we are grander than just this physical form, then we are going to do whatever’s necessary to go on that path. We have that inner knowing.

F And when we have that inner knowing and as we’re going through it, we can shift things that no longer serve us very easily.

F The only time we start getting into pain or something intense is when we’re not getting it. And we need something a little more intense to get our attention.

F Sometimes we get all caught up in our little experience of whatever it may be, and we get into such a comfortable pattern that we tend to repeat the 3rd Dimensional consciousness state. And your soul is saying, “It’s time to go into 4th Dimensional consciousness...that’s what we’re here for. We want to be participating in this. So, come on, let’s get moving.” But if that doesn’t play out in a way where we’re actually taking steps forward, then, of course, it’s going to become a bit more intense to get our attention to accelerate.

F And a lot of the things that are occurring are also helping us in the dream state. Because a lot of us, at this point in time, are also having very intense dreams, very intense experiences in the dreams. Some are also dreaming in parallel worlds, with aspects of themselves being somewhere else. And, again, these experiences are, in a sense, helping to wrap up certain experiences that may not be so easily available to learn on this Earth plane at this time. So you access other aspects of yourself in other parallel worlds and you are also able to have other aspects of yourself in different timelines and so forth.

F But then the mind also gets very creative because the soul communicates with the right brain, which is actually very creative in its natural state, and will create realities...with no limits. Because we are basically vibration and energy and we are very creative in that respect. We use that to create dreams that will help us to learn and experience certain things that may not be so easily available in the awakened...or what we might call a projected awakened state. So that becomes a part of it.

F And you can see that, as you are done with certain things, the dreams will change. And you don't have to have repetitive dreams. You will have them only as long as they serve. And sometimes you may still have certain repetitive dreams but the ways it feels starts to change. And then when it's completely neutral and you're in a very playful state within the dream, you will notice that it may not need to be played out anymore, so you are not going to create that anymore.

F So it's like your awakened state: you're going to have certain experiences repeat, repeat, repeat, until you get completely at ease and neutral about it and then, all of a sudden, the people who used to push your buttons, the people who used to play a very dense role around you are now not showing up. And if they do show up they are not going to be playing the same role.

F So things are changing. And we do that in the dream state, too.

F There's all of this that is facilitating us as we go along.

F Right now, as things are stepping up, we are going even further than ever before...in so many ways.

F And, of course, as you can see, a lot of what is changing around us in our physical world is also playing a role within ourselves too. And we can see a lot of the changes going on.

F So we are very active and creative in assisting ourselves to go into the 4th and 5th Dimensional consciousness. Because there are many souls who are choosing to really be participating in this.

F Because this is a phenomenal time!

F Sometimes I hear people saying, "I don't want to be on the planet any longer. I don't want to experience this anymore! I don't belong here," and so on. That's just the mind. It gets itself really into it.

F And even feeling tired or feeling fatigued...it's just the fight within the mind that's going on.

F But, in actual fact, the reason that you're here is because you've chosen to be here in this major, powerful, transformational time. Because this is where you can make such huge progress!

F Even though you may not reflect it in the physical form right away, it is very powerful. And even if you don't reflect it in your own personal world, you are reflecting it in others around you...energetically, in that respect.

F So you're here because you need to be here.

F And sometimes people say, “Well I don’t belong here because I came from somewhere else.” Well, really nobody belongs “here”, in a sense. But this is our creation, at the same time. So we’ve created a home to play with for the time being, so this is where you are.

F All of us are from Source. And all of us are Source. And all of us never left Source. We are just projecting this playground that we are playing in here and these physicalities and so forth.

F Sometimes the memories come up where we’ve seen ourselves on another planet or seen ourselves in a different experience...a different experience in, let’s say, a human form and being in previous incarnations, or in being ourselves on another planet, or something of that nature. Does that mean that you belong more in any of those than you belong here...now...in this particular form? Absolutely not! You don’t really belong in any of those places. Those were just paths that you went through when you chose to be there. And you chose to be here now.

F But when you chose to be there at that point in time, it was perfect for you at that time. It doesn’t mean that you need to go back. If you went right back to that point in time, it would be like, “Oh, what am I doing here? I don’t need to be here, because if I did need to be here I would have been here.”

F It’s not like anyone is telling you, “Oh, sorry. You can’t choose Door #1. You have to go to Door #2 or Door #3 because Door #1 is not available to you.” No. You choose. You say, “OK. I’ve done Door #1 for a while and now I’m going to go do #3 for a while.” But it doesn’t mean that you don’t belong in Door #1. You don’t belong in any of those Doors. You just chose them. You just stepped into them to experience it there.

F So in that aspect of it, sometimes it feels...especially when things are getting more intense for us...it starts to feel like, “Oh, no, no, no! I can’t do this! I don’t want to be part of this anymore! I need to get out of here!” ...feeling like you don’t belong here and stuff like that. That is a good sign that you are at the verge of a lot of changes and that things are intensifying for you for that change to prepare yourself to move forward.

F The moment you feel that you don’t need to be here, that you are not in servitude for yourself and your facet of your soul and other facets of other souls with whom you’ve made a contract...then you are out of here. You are never held prisoner here. Absolutely not! It doesn’t matter what the mind has created as a story or judgment about anything. You are free to flow in and out as you choose.

F So we are all here now because we chose to be here.

F And we are all doing this beautiful journey together...especially now.

F We are no longer working as fragment beings. Our 3rd Dimensional world has always been seeing ourselves as separate beings.

F Now I won't explain all this organic/inorganic 3rd Dimensional consciousness and all that stuff. I will explain it at the "2013 and Beyond" event. And I will show all the different changes and things that aligned for us to help us change. And we can go right in to a bit more of the nitty-gritty of it.

F And then we are also going to do the processes to help everyone go through this. And also create openings for other aspects of ourselves, being the other souls on the planet.

F I won't go into details, but there are a lot of things that have changed to facilitate us as we're going through this.

F And one of the key changes that have occurred is that we are now no longer in "sole mode" where we are doing this alone.

F Even if we are changing our individual experience, it's still done as a collective.

F We've always been doing it as a collective, but we have never really...not since the modification occurred...really been walking in that way. There was an illusionary separation where, "It's all about me. And whatever I can do, I can do. Everybody else is on their own." As much as that is true to the extent that even though every facet of ourselves is on their own journey, everybody was actually doing it together...we are now consciously doing it together.

F The Oneness aspect of it has kicked in and that makes it much, much more powerful. And that really is one of the most powerful tools for us to help with this transformation.

F You see, this is not only about self-changes. It starts there. But to change our playground and change our reality, we are doing it together.

F And no matter what changes around us where we may feel vulnerable...for example, if there is collapses in our systems around us...in the sense that we have attachments and a sense of security with respect to what keeps us afloat, type of thing. Once that starts to shift, if we still see ourselves still isolated and separated, we are going to go into fear and survival...very intensely.

F And the fear and survival will be like, "Well, how am I going to make it?!" The statement alone, "How am I going to make it?!" already determines what state of consciousness you are in. Because when you get into 4th and 5th Dimensional consciousness, it's no more, "How am I going to make it?!", rather it's, "How are we going to transform this?" We...transform...this. Not how am "I" going to "make it?" Big difference!

F And now you cooperate with one another.

F We've always cooperated at the super-conscious level. But now we are going to cooperate at all levels...consciously, sub-consciously...and super-consciously...where we are now coming together and saying, 'Hey! This is our playground. We are here to play together!' "We're all facets of each other. We understand that each one of us, as we go through our changes, as we make changes, we are all advancing each other."

F So we no longer see ourselves as being separate. We all create the perfect environment that we are choosing for this new reality, this new state of consciousness...and for all aspect of ourselves to be part of it.

F And doing so with this Oneness connection and consciousness that we've shifted into, we now not only no longer hold on to anything, but we share it...like the breath!

F Each breath that we take in we are taking in energy from everyone who's shared. And as we exhale, we are sharing it with everyone.

F So our consciousness is that way...and our experiences become that way. And we are learning from our experiences...together.

F So it's no longer that, "Peter's over there doing his thing and I'm Jane doing this thing. And I have to focus on what I'm doing and he will focus on what he's doing."

F Now we are not only going to play together, but we are also going to observe what each one is doing and what each one is learning...so that we can take part of that consciousness within ourselves...and then we expand...and vice versa...creating each one moving forward.

F Especially now that we've gone into this new cycle...which is the shortest cycle and the most advanced cycle there's going to be...where the souls will make the grandest progress in the shortest period of time.

F We can't do this as individuals, bumping and going into one lifetime after the next lifetime after the next lifetime.

F What we're looking at now is that huge advancements will be done because we are going to be learning from each other.

F We will be learning in an environment where we are no longer isolated. We will be learning from each other's experience and advancing each other very quickly.

F And we are now going to be learning more and more from everyone...including nature, including the animal kingdom and the oceanic kingdom, the insect world...and the planet itself...and also our brother/sister souls.

F So we will make the greatest amount of progress because we are no longer on an individualized path of experiencing and learning and playing. We now take in what other aspects of ourselves are learning and expand ours at the same time.

F We will make huge progress!

F And then we will advance the collective altogether...at the same time.

F So these are some of the changes that have occurred which are really supporting us through this journey.

F And even with the smaller number of the souls who have actually shifted into 4th Dimensional consciousness, there is still more than three-quarters of the population (at this point in time) who are still playing in 3rd Dimensional consciousness.

F But every single soul is on the same mandate, as much as possible. And even if it's not on the mandate that, "I'm going to shift into 4th and 5th Dimensional consciousness, I will at least facilitate another aspect of myself to go into 4th and 5th, and I'll be here as long as I can be of servitude. And as soon as I'm not, I'm out."

F So, in a sense, because of the ones who have already stepped in and because of all the changes that have occurred, more and more are actually following suit.

F So do we really need so many to exit the planet? Possibly not. At this point in time it's undetermined. It all depends how we all play together...and, again, with Oneness consciousness, we do play together. And as we do play together, we create the dynamics.

F And that's why it's great to get together with like-minded people at events or situations where we come together, unify and create another beautiful pocket of consciousness to be shared with the collective...it all facilitates other aspects of ourselves to make transformations.

F And right now it's not about going from one system to another system. We are going from a system which is rigid to one which is very fluid and dissolving system afterwards...where it serves only moment by moment.

F And that's why going moment by moment, you can't project not only the future, but we can't even project our realities that we're going to play with. We have an idea where we're choosing to go because we have that memory within our soul, within our Essence, of what we have the potential to create, but each moment we are creating the environment and the playground to get to, to choose wherever it is we're choosing to get to.

F But it's not about getting there.

F It's about the journey. Because that's what prepares us.

F Somebody says, "I want to go from A to Z and I want to get there as fast as possible. But the way it's designed, in order for you to get to Z...it's not about getting from A to Z...as much as that may be a part of it...but to get from A to Z you have to go to B, C, D, E, F and on and on and on and on...because each one prepares for the next...it's very linear. You can't skip. So each step of our evolution prepares you for the next.

F And that's why if you are in the moment, whatever you're experiencing in this moment, as your consciousness shifts, you now create the next moment.

F And the next moment is the same thing...you just create another moment...based on an expanded consciousness.

F That's how Source is designed.

F So if you're going from A to Z...in order to get to there you have to create each moment, each step of the way. And each step of the way is going to be more advanced than the next. So by the time you actually get to Z, it's not the Z that you originally set out for. Because as you were taking those steps, each one is advancing you more. So by the time you do get to Z, it's a much more highly advanced Z than when you originally set out from A.

F And that's just to give you a little analogy to help in understanding what we're moving into.

F The original number of people who participated in the shift into 4th Dimensional consciousness by December 2012 was about 22% and the increases in that percentage since December has been miniscule so far.

F However, there is a larger percentage who is preparing and is becoming more active in that preparation than before. So as much as they may not yet have stepped into 4th Dimensional consciousness yet, there is so much work being done to get themselves ready to make that shift...because of the 22% that have already done it...and I think we are actually closer to 24% now...the number of people who have already made the shift has already changed the dynamics of the environment to play with, that more and more are readily available to do the wrapping up and the preparations to go into 4th. So there's a much larger movement.

F But, at the same time, that movement may seem much more intense, where people are feeling much more intense experiences and much more active...let's call it this way...there are much more rapid changes occurring in the sense of events, situations, circumstances, and so forth that may be creating intensities and so forth. But that's all part and parcel of the preparation to go into 4th.

F So there's more and more people hopping onto the ride to do the work to go into the 4th. That is the uplifting aspect of it. Rather than, "Yea, we're already in the 4th and I'm not going to check out," kind of thing. So there's more people preparing to go into it.

F So that's the part I've noticed has changed a lot...the change in the numbers who are choosing to jump in.

F But there are going to be even more as we go along because there will be more shifting over as we go along.

F As for the numbers, it is still undetermined. They still don't look huge at the moment.

F But the other beautiful thing is that we have a lot of different things coming through right now...energetically, consciously...where people are starting to share information...

F Like you were talking about before, Antonia, people are choosing to not support Monsanto, and so forth. These are things that are signs, at this point in time, that there is a shift going on. A shift within each person. Because before people wouldn't question anything before. They would just do whatever the system would say. There was no active consciousness involved in choosing their reality and experience and what direction they wanted to go. So those things coming into play is part of other preparation work that is going on.

F So what we're seeing all around us part of what's taking place.

A Yes. And that's what the "2013 and Beyond" event we are hosting in Toronto in June is all about: to prepare for the August shift and to provide more clarification for what is happening with people...above and beyond what is already being presented out there.

A People are turning towards more alternative sources rather than the mainstream media for information. The mainstream media is so controlled, with I think now only about 5 corporations that control all the media, pretty much internationally. And that's fine. That's what we agreed to. But that is changing.

A My point is that if you are plugged into the alternative media...like, for example, our good friends at Collective Evolution who do a great job presenting information. You will see that there is a huge difference from what is being projected out there and what is really taking place.

A One example is the peaceful walk taking place this coming Saturday protesting Monsanto. A lot of the on-line blogs and alternative sites and so forth are making people aware of it, however we haven't heard a peep about it in the mainstream media.

A As we go further into 2013 you will see this more and more. You will see the absurdity of what's in the media compared to what's happening among the people. And we will cover that more at the event to assist in providing everyone with some clarity.

A Franco and I talked about bringing in a higher consciousness for the event (inaudible), laws, rules, and the programming...so that we could then connect to the new world...which will probably be happening more on the Sunday than the Saturday...where you could really see it, feel it and touch it and have it be more real for you. This was a conversation that we had about what it would look like.

F Yes, absolutely. And the key here too is...even with the alternative media and all that stuff that's coming up...a lot of things are being brought up to the surface now about what's really happening and so forth. And, of course, what we're really looking at is getting a very clear understanding of how everything served...but, at the same time, how to actually be active in making those changes occur.

F But the key for this event is that we really want to go back to Source Code.

F And when I talk about Source Code, I'm talking about Creation itself.

F In the sense that we are going through this transformation...but even the hierarchies and all the different things....

F Like, for example, right now there are changes happening in the monetary aspect of it and people are proposing all these other things: “We’ve got to go into gold,” “We’ve got to go into this (or that),” or “We’ve got to clear the debt” ...which is all fine, and we understand that this is not true...and, “We have to go into all these other scenarios where the banking aspect has to do this, and this and this.” And we are learning from those transformations.

F But when we are talking about Source Codes, it is to really get implanted into every soul the understanding that everything is made up of this (that’s going on there), but we really *don’t need any of it!

F So it’s not about going from one to something else...rather, it’s going right to our True Essence.

F And to create through that True Essence, where we actually experience that free, open state of being.

F So we are going to take a look at all the different scenarios.

F Because a lot of times we get caught up in the alternatives, too. Which is great because this is all powerful information and it’s all beneficial. But it’s not to get caught up in any of it because a lot of times we can create judgment, we can create all types of things when we start looking at it.

F Especially when we open our eyes for the first time and see that people are still in a programmed state where they have judgment and fear...what happens? We find out all of a sudden, “Yea, look at our food system: it’s totally constructed to compromise health and is totally about controlling humanity’s access to food, access to anything that is conducive to our physicality...and monopolized in the hands of how many people? And they have the only rights (for example, Monsanto, or whoever else)? And, of course, the automatic reaction is fear and judgement and hatred and whatever else

F But we need to work on seeing the perfection in all of that and the roles that are being played...so that we can actually free ourselves.

F And also going into the consciousness of it and knowing not only what is being projected, but it’s not about fairness and therefore, “This should be this way and that should be that way.”

F We need to realize that it doesn’t have to be any way!

F In the monetary system, for example, instead of creating another system, we go into actually not having any requirements of having to have something to trade.

F Some people talk about, “Well, if we make enough money available for everybody,” or some others might say, “Well, if we go back to the old systems we had back in the early 1900’s, or even before 1974 when it was fairer and there was lower unemployment (or something of that nature) and the world was a better place," ...but that's not the answer.

F The answer is not more employment, the answer is not about redistribution of wealth...the answer is none of that.

F The answer is that we don't need any of that!

F We can get rid and dispose of it all.

F It doesn't matter how much gold reserves you have anywhere. If gold is actually a natural mineral of some sort that is beneficial for us to use as part of our technology or something of that nature...then fine. But we are not going to give it value because we have to have something to use as a method of exchange.

F We go beyond that.

F We actually go back to Creator Essence where you see that everything is available, everything is our playground...and we have access to all of it...as a free agent to play within the experience.

F So (at the event) we will take a look at all of that and get into the actual Essence.

F Even the stories, the belief systems, programs, and so forth that we've taken on...all the different roles that have been taken on in religion, and whatever else...and we'll look at all those aspects. And how we can shift from it.

F And actually understand the True Essence, the True Nature of everything.

F You know with all the work I do behind the scenes, most of the new Codes that are coming in are coming straight from Source.

F They are not coming from other planets or other Dimensions...yes, they might be slightly tuned from other Dimensions so that they can be easily adopted as part of our transformation...because we have to have feed from the other Dimensions to help us to shift into those other Dimensions.

F But we are not taking something from somewhere else. We are taking them from Creator Essence, as Codes directly from Source...from the Zero Point...whatever you want to call it...before thought, before consciousness started to create form...the Non-Form creating New Form.

F But this New Form is created with a new consciousness.

F And this new consciousness is more advanced than when it originally started. So this is the beauty of that.

F So we will be playing with all those aspects of it and different ways that we will do the processes for that.

F And we will be bringing that re-activation of that reality of this New World which we have implanted in our own soul, in our own heart. It is the world that we feel in ourselves in our free state.

F We've played the "non-free," we've played the "limited" state, we've played the "separation" game, we've played the game of seeing ourselves as nothing and progressing into some illusionary something.

F We are going into a state right now where we are creating a world which is reflective of the consciousness that we are...the new consciousness that we are, as Source Itself in this physical form.

F And a state where we actually start to use the physicality fully...we start using the mind fully...we start using our creative abilities without being stuck in patterns or being caught up in any locked-up programs.

F And then you become more instantaneous creators...in the sense where you no longer take a long period of time to create something because of the lag time. The lag time is shrinking quickly now because of the fact that we are becoming instant creators.

F Because what happens is that we create something to experience something from it, we learn from it, and then we uncreate it. So if it takes us five years to create something then it's a slower process. In the past we used to sometimes take lifetimes, and sometimes many lifetimes before we actually created and learned from just one experience.

F But now what we are doing with all the coding that we are putting in is allowing us to become an instant manifester.

F And when I say "manifest," I'm not talking about what some people talk about like "manifesting our reality," or manifesting our dream or our ideal life or something of that nature.

F We're manifesting all the time. We are creating, in many cases, at a slow pace, but we are always creating, we are always creating, and we never stop being a manifester. If we stopped being a manifester we wouldn't exist...not in a physical form...because each millisecond we are manifesting our physicality and every experience within ourselves. Without that, we wouldn't be here. Without that we wouldn't be experiencing drama...or anything else! So we are always already manifesters.

F But what I'm talking about when I say "manifester" is about creating an alignment from the soul level and in a much more rapid state.

F That means that if I want to create something, it's not going to take me five years; I can create it in a few seconds. And I can experience it. And for as long as I choose to experience it. And as soon as I'm done, I can uncreate it in a few seconds...or less...or maybe a little more...depending. But it doesn't take so long in the sense where we have lag time.

F In the past we have had lag time for our own highest good because of the fact that our state of consciousness, our state of mind, our thoughts were bouncing so much all over the place that we would hear one word from somebody and suddenly we would have a whole chain of thoughts. And that chain of thoughts would change the way you felt, your emotions and so forth.

F And if we were fully allowed to create in our natural state, which is through emotions and through thoughts...instantaneously...you can imagine what we would be creating (laughs) within ourselves!

F We were not prepared for that. So we made that stipulation so that everything was delayed where we could have reflective time and we could create a basis of one state of thought and feeling for a period of time, until you were actually feeling, "OK, yeah. I can use this experience." And then it would manifest.

F So that is shifting, too, so that we will manifest a lot quicker. And as we manifest quicker, we will have experiences quicker, we will advance quicker...and we become enlightened quicker.

F And that's what the acceleration is all about: it's about that. So that we create and experience everything quicker.

F And not only that, but also we don't get attached to our creations. We don't get attached to what we've experienced...dramatically or otherwise.

F How many times do people have a dramatic experience and then they say, "Well now I have to do go through a healing process. This is going to take me a while. I have to heal." If there's a break-up it may take years to get out of all the emotional entanglements that the relationship may have represented at that point in time.

F But as we get into 4th and 5th Dimensional consciousness, that won't be the case. A break-up happens, maybe you have an experience and have some little attachments, and then it's gone within seconds or a minute, or half a day, or whatever. But it won't be something where you have to go through a whole healing process; that won't happen.

F Because with the healing process...what we determine is the "healing process" ...is "time" to experience until we can get out of that pattern. But that will no longer be feasible as part of our experience of moving faster in moving forward in our experience of creating new realities. So there is no "healing."

F You create, you experience, you uncreate. Next.

F You create, you experience and you uncreate. Next.

F It's done that way. It's done very quickly.

F And the experience is beautifully danced and orchestrated with one another.

F But everything is quicker.

F And it's quicker not because we are in a rush. It's that we are now no longer lagging through the learning and dragging our feet through the learning and playing.

F For example, it's like, "Let's go to the park. We're going to go play with the swing. It doesn't matter if we get tired or if we fall off, or anything of that nature. We have to stay with the swing until we are so fed up with the swing that maybe we'll look at the slide next."

F It will be different in that you will go to the park and say, "Oh, swing. Let's go play with the swing." Then it's back and forth. And then maybe, "Oh, let's change. Let's play with the slide." And you will play with the slide. And then it will be, "Let's go play with the teeter-totter," and then it will be to go and play with something else.

F And you are going to have just as much fun and experience as you want and it will be instantaneous. Like children. That's how children do it: they run around and play with different things. "OK, what's next?"

F And, in a way, that child-like part is what we are bringing back in...but in a conscious state where we see that everything as an opportunity to play, experience, and learn.

A Yes. One of the things that we talked about was about how we might create things going forward. And some of the things that are being suggested are based on what we have known from the 3-D world.

A But when we are looking at creating in the 4th and on in to the 5th, it's hard when we are talking about creating and manifesting because we haven't been there for so long using that capacity that it's kind of unfamiliar to create from there right now.

A So people might talk about, "we need more jobs." But, well, who really wants a job. (laughs) When you look at it, in reality, is it about shifting to a reality of having more job opportunities? No. We're shifting to a better world (inaudible)

A What we will be doing at this upcoming event is assisting to clear and to do activations so that we can see, hear and "taste" differently what we're moving into. But it's hard to put that into words.

A I think that maybe the best way to describe it is, let's say, if you are someone who speaks a certain language...let's say all you know is English. That's all you've known. And all you've known is English culture. Then it's kind of difficult for you to imagine what a completely different culture is like because you'll know the culture only through your English interpretation of the state of the culture versus, let's say, experiencing the culture completely on its own. I'm just trying to create an idea here.

A But a lot of the "solutions" that are being presented right now are coming from a 3-D consciousness...because that's just where we were.

A And what we are look to create with this event (inaudible) is in clearing and releasing the veils and opening up and installing activations where we are creating from more of a 5th Dimensional consciousness.

A And, as Franco said, the key to all of this is Oneness.

A In the 3-D world there was a separation. It was a world of being on your own and feeling alone. And that was done purposely because the more we feel separated, the more we can unite and move forward together.

A So moving into this 4th Dimension as we are, and continuing to move closer to the 5th Dimension, it's more about community and coming together.

A That's why I think the internet has taken off so quickly. Because even though it is being controlled, it is still doing a huge part in assisting people worldwide to unite. Look at this call that we're on right now: there are people here from all over the world...whether they are on via the telephone, whether they are on via the webcast, or whether they will be listening to it later via the recording...we've all connected. And that's something that was more difficult to do just not so long ago.

A And as we move forward into the 4th and continuing into the 5th Dimensions, more things like this will appear and will allow people to connect.

A And the Oneness will be felt more and more. People will even be able to communicate more telepathically and they will be able to more easily get each other's thoughts and support.

A So that's part of what this event is about: to bring that more into reality for people.

A Do you have anything to add to that, Franco?

F Yes. With respect to the event specifically, we are going to be igniting within ourselves, so we are going to be experiencing all of that. We are also going to cover a lot of what has changed and how we are being supported through this change. And also going to be looking at a lot of things that have kept us in a state of being limited, and will really work with it directly. But as we are doing that, it is facilitating...completely.

F Because, the thing is, even though, at some point in time, we are not going to be able to automatically step into that reality fully, 100%, right away. Because the moment that we have started to activate that aspect of ourselves, where we see everything in its natural state and are utilizing these new Source Codes and so forth that we will be playing with and activating within...that the transition, as it's occurring, will become more fluid...and then we will just flow right through.

F And as you were saying, too, there are a lot of modalities out there, there's a lot of stuff that has been passed on from generation to generation...and some of the stuff that's being shared comes back from thousands of years ago. I'm not saying there's anything wrong with that...because there's no wrong or right. But even the Source Codes that were shared at the time of even 15,000 years ago when there was a modification on the planet...or anything else that has been shared along the way in the last several thousands of years.

F Even the metaphysical people who have been working the field of discovery have noticed that the mathematical calculations are even changing! The results of the computations that are coming together actually create matter in a different form...or at least the projection of matter in a different form. The equations are changing, the Codes are changing...everything is changing!

F Because what's happening right now is whatever we've experienced in the past, whatever we've learned from the modalities of the past, were from a different state of consciousness...even right down to the Source Codes themselves.

F Even with the work that I'm doing behind the scenes, I see that we are changing everything.

F We are leaving everything behind.

F So even the Codes when they were designed originally and these physicalities were projected, when this planet was updated...before even the modification...even before the universe was created...or when the universes were created and all the different planets were created...they are now different! It's ALL changed!

F All of it is changing...everything is changing...all the time.

F So at the event we are going to play with the most current. We are right into the most current, all aspects of the most current.

F And even if we personally can't adopt it right away, it is implanted, it's activated and as time goes along, it will just start to take effect as we are going through it.

F Because right now my deepest "desire" is I'm doing this...and I don't like that word but I'm going to use it so people can understand...but my purpose here right now is to assist in taking huge leaps and really accentuate our True Essence through these leaps that we are doing, as Source Itself. And really going into a state where not only don't we have limits, but we are creating new possibilities, new probabilities, new opportunities to create something even grander.

F And it goes way beyond having material things or anything of that nature. To the point where it goes beyond anything that we could attach to. We can experience, but we won't have any attachments.

F And we will also help people with the fears and so forth with the transition. Because the transition still creates fear...especially in areas where people are concerned: "What do I do with the financial aspects?" "How to I survive now?" and so forth. And we will assist them in really go through that process within themselves so that the fear is not the automatic default. Even though it's not our natural default, but it is a programmed default. So that, in fact, if anything does shift within ourselves or in our personal experience that automatically, "OK, great. Now what's my next choice? How do I play the next thing without going into fear?"

F Because the moment we bring fear in, we shrink ourselves. We basically reduce our creative ability. Here we have Source Itself in a physical form, we create the illusion of fear and we experience fear at the emotional level and go right into it...and you can see how you feel contracted. And not only contracted, but you see all your possibilities, all your probabilities, all your potentialities that you have at your disposal...and the Creator Essence that You Are becomes so small that you can't see outside.

F In the meantime, you have all these doors. And every single door is unlocked. But you are against the corner trying to figure out, "How am I going to get out?!" When the room itself is full of doors and open to a multitude of probabilities. That's what happens when we get into fear. So we will assist you in stepping outside of the fear of this change that's happening. So that you can now see possibilities and probabilities.

F And the probabilities will not be based on old programs! "I need to have wealth." Or, "I need to have this or that in order for me to feel good." It will be completely different. In that Essence, it will be, "OK, what do I really want to experience? What do I choose to really play with today?"

F And the word is "today." This moment. Not, "What's my life going to be?"

F Look at it now: A student goes to school and it's like, "I've got to plan out my life!" "What are you going to be when you grow up? What are you going to experience while you are in the career world?" "What are you going to create with the family dynamics?" or whatever it is. It's always projecting something way further in advance.

F But that's going to be no longer the case. At this point in time, what are we going to be looking at is what are we going to create at this moment. "What am I going to experience only for this moment?"

F Because the next moment there will be all new probabilities, all new possibilities, all new designs. But it's not adhered to a wave thought, a wave pattern that is repetitive. Just because everybody else is doing it, then we are going to do it. It won't be like that at all. All of that will change.

F So basically at the event we will assist with dealing with those kinds of changes.

F And we will also assist with the processes and also activating the world of pure potentiality...which really exists but we are not yet experiencing it.

F And so that's what we are working at: experiencing and expanding ourselves.

F We came here to play. But we came here to play in the sense of where we now really want to experience fully...not only in a physical form but with the playground itself and what it represents...for the first time.

F We've had many lives on this planet but each time we've just experienced another version of limitation...which is great...it served and whatever else...but now we want to create something else.

F So we will assist in facilitating this.

F And each person who is participating and all those who will join us later (by listening to the recordings) will all play an active role. You will be assisting yourself...and other aspects of yourself.

A Yes. And the other aspect of the event is with respect getting back to Oneness. By participating in this event, taking part in the clearings, the activations and instalments, each individual is uniting to raise the frequency again...and that will help the mass consciousness with everything that's happening...and to bring Oneness to the world. So that is a big, big part of what's happening for the June event...by just participating in the event, being a part of the event, being called to it, it's because you have agreed to be at this event to assist all humanity to (inaudible).

F Yes. Part of the work that we will be doing is that we will be doing a Global Activation. And also uploading higher consciousness and accessibility to, really, the collective consciousness.

F And each person involved will be, as you were saying earlier, a conduit for all of that.

F So, really, if you feel guided to it, you will be playing a powerful role.

F Not that anyone is not...because we all are, no matter what, in anything that we are doing. But it will be a collective.

F And this is why we like to have these events from time to time...and even with this call...because collectively we seem to accentuate the access to the work that we are doing as a collective to shift everything around us. And to shift the consciousness so that others can participate.

F Because you will notice that as we do this, all of a sudden people who would normally not reflect any awareness...or very little awareness...all of a sudden starts reflecting more awareness. And where are they getting it from? They are being fed off the collective consciousness that we are all participating to assist. And these are just other aspects of ourselves being affected by it.

F So, yes, there's going to be energies that will be activated by the participants, but also it's a Global Activation for this higher consciousness and will also allow for new Source Codes and everything else.

F As it's going through each and every one and as they are going through their transformation, we are also setting it up for transformation on a global level.

A Yes. And in the meantime, please keep doing any and all of the Clearings that you feel guided to do. And do them as often as you feel guided to do. They are constantly being updated and upgraded energetically, so even the ones recorded a year or two ago are always being energetically upgraded. So every time you do them, they are always "new," always transmitting the most recent energies.

A Franco and I do always connect energetically into them, and whenever we connect into them and are doing them, we update them, energetically, such that when you are doing them or your friends/family are doing them, you are getting the most active and updated frequencies.

A It does not matter if you do not speak English. Some people have asked about passing on the Clearings to others who do not speak English. It doesn't matter. The frequencies are being carried in the Activations and the Clearings and that's what's enabling change for all.

A So please continue doing them. And thank you for your feedback about doing them.

F Yes. I've had a couple of people over the last little while who had received the Clearings and they do not speak English at all. And they were saying that a couple of their family members started to feel better, feeling freer, lighter...but they didn't know why because they didn't understand what the Clearing was about.

F Because the soul has no language barriers. And even the cells in the body...because there's a certain frequency that's carried in the Clearings...that even though they don't understand what's being said, it is shifting them.

F And in closing, I just wanted to mention that sometimes people who have been involved with our events and Clearings previously, wonder if there is going to be something new or something worthwhile for them to be there, and there always is. Because things have been changing...and will continue to change and will continue to advance. So even the work is advancing as we go along. So even if you have been to other events before, each one will accentuate the last one, so not to feel that, "Oh, I went to some events previously, or I've been on other calls so I don't need to be on this one." Of course, feel your own self, but don't get the mind involved in saying, "Is this going to be a repeat?"

F In some cases, there will be some overlap. But anything repeated is also advanced.

F But, in any case, there's a lot of new material in this event and even the frequencies that are being used are changing...all to match the new frequencies that are coming through.

F And all of it is in preparation for the next few stages that we're going through. And especially the August 8th one that we were talking about, which is the actual anchoring in of 4th Dimensional consciousness.

F So everything is being upgraded.

F So if anyone has any concerns about it being redundant...no...because everything is always expanding...all the time.

A Absolutely.
