

GLOBAL RE-EMPOWERMENT OF HUMANITY

Group Teaching
June 19, 2013

Antonia Hagens, Masterpiece Life

Antonia (“A”)

Franco (“F”)

A I’m very excited about this Activation. There’s been a lot of shifts, a lot of energy coming in. A lot of (inaudible) assisting. We have a lot of brother/sister beings who are assisting us right now in this time of great change.

A And this teaching and Activation is to further assist with that. Especially the very strong energies that will be coming in June 21st. And that is the reason we are doing this Activation is to assist with the energies coming in. There’s a lot of things that are going to be happening around the world as we get shaken up further into the 4th dimension and this is to assist us all to ground in peace.

F Yes. This particular subject, or this particular direction that we needed to play with is...like you were saying, there’s a lot of new energies coming through.

F And right now people are starting to awaken and there’s so much coming up to the surface. As you can see internationally people are standing up to the fact that, “We don’t want government. We don’t want control structures and so forth dictating our life.” So it’s been a very powerful movement of energy that’s been occurring. And it’s actually been accelerating and intensifying.

F And it felt very powerfully that we needed to address this re-empowerment.

F We’ve gone through thousands of years of dis-empowerment and we’ve actually ingrained it as an imprint onto our souls, we’ve ingrained it into our collective consciousness, and we’ve been projecting amongst each other.

F And then we allowed the legal system and other structures and so forth to play the role of dis-empowerment. So, in actual fact, they played the empowered role...but in the sense of a dictator and not that of co-creation.

F Even though all of that is still co-creation. It’s still an opportunity for us to grow. And all of it has served us to this point in time.

F But now, as we are all aware, we are going through a transformation.

F And the transformation is not going from dark to light. It's a transformation from being in a limited, restricted state...which may be represented as darkness...meaning not having access to higher consciousness and also experiencing light in that way...to an expanded consciousness where we are more consciousness that we are, in a sense, the driver of our own experience and also the co-creator of everything that we are.

F But now we are stepping it up so that we create something that is not limited. So that we are actually more in alignment with our True Essence.

F So that's what's taking place.

F Now I know one of the questions was, "How is it different from the powerful Global Activation that we did at the event just 10 days ago (i.e. 2012 and Beyond)?" This is actually in addition to that. This is actually focused very powerfully because of these new energies coming in. The one we did at the event was very powerful because it set the basis, set all the groundwork at every level and also created openings.

F This particular Activation/Clearing is very specific and it is to accommodate and also complement this whole transformation that's going on. So it's the next phase of it.

F You see, with respect to the global aspect of it, we don't just do one thing and it's done. Because each one prepares for the next.

F And it's not that we need to keep doing this for the next thousand years or next hundred years, or whatever it is. It's just that now, as we are going through these increases and we're shifting...

F You know, we're grounding into the different Dimensions, and the final activation and grounding of the 4th Dimensional consciousness is August 8th. It is the fourth component that locks in. And basically the planet itself will then be fully grounded in 4th Dimensional consciousness.

F And then we are going to be utilizing those new energies to actually push us further forward.

F So everything is being provided at this point in time. And we are co-creating it.

F This is not just something that we sat down and said, "OK, we need to do this." It came very powerfully. The soul says, "OK, this is what we need to do." But this is co-created with every single soul who is participating at this point in time.

F And it does not even involve only our souls on this planet; it also involves all the souls who are waiting to be back on the planet, it involves all the souls who are actually observing everything, and it also involves all our brother/sister souls from other planets. So this is bringing everything together.

F And even though we've talked about a lot of things coming through with other brother/sister beings participating with us, assisting us, complementing us, and so forth in the work that we're doing and in the movement that we're doing...but we have to remember that we still don't make anything outside of us (and, of course, nothing is outside of us because everything is us)...but these other beings, these other aspects of ourselves are not more powerful than us nor are they in charge of the path in our life as an individual nor as a collective. So, in actual fact, even though they are providing assistance, it doesn't mean that they are better or greater than we are, or that we need to feel dis-empowered or feel that they have more power than us. That's not the case.

F The fact that we choose and we allow certain people or individuals or aspects of ourselves to take certain roles on our planet doesn't mean that they are there to dictate our life. We are here to work together...complementary...fully...completely...so that everything now is created in that form.

F So all of this is assisting us in that part.

F And especially this Re-Empowerment Activation is very powerful because it is reversing thousands of years of encodement.

F It is very powerful in the sense where we actually take charge of our own direction...not only individually but also collectively.

F But when we're doing it collectively, there is no separation any longer. It's not like one dictates the whole mass. It is the mass that works together to co-create and to allow each to express themselves, to be themselves, and to walk together...enhancing each other as we're going through.

F Because this shift that we're doing is not an individual shift in itself. It is very much so, however, that it is an individual aspect that takes on all aspects of our self. Because we're talking about individual growth...or the involvement that we're doing and the shifting that we're doing...that it involves every aspect of our self. So it is the grand whole Essence of Who We Are.

F So it is not just an isolated individual. It is a collective aspect...together.

F So that's really what's playing out.

F And that's the reason that we are facilitating this tonight because there was a call from all the souls very powerfully to do it.

F You know, Antonia, that we needed to do this one...and here we are! We are making it happen.

F But we are making it happen because everyone else is bringing it. We can't do it ourselves. So that's why we have invited all these beautiful souls to participate with us now, tonight, and also to participate by listening to the recordings whenever they have the opportunity to do so.

F Because whatever we create now is not only shifting everybody online at the moment, but this evening's work is actually a global thing. We activate and make changes to the whole planet...both the collective consciousness and all the individual consciousnesses.

F So there's another level of accessibility that will be established.

F And this is what we're doing...together...this evening.

F So that's what we're playing with.

A Absolutely. Yes, the event we did 10 days ago, "2013 and Beyond, Continuing the Shift into Oneness," was very powerful. And we looked at a lot of things and specifically brought in a lot of energies for the upcoming shifts. For those who want to participate in that event by listening to the audio recording, you can go to the Masterpiece Life website, www.masterpiece.life.com, under the "Books/Courses" tab, and everything is there. Even point-form notes and all the charts from that event are there.

A In addition to just teachings in that event, we had some very powerful energy transmissions and Activations. Franco and I are still not recovered from the intense weekend and are still not really back in our bodies because there was such tremendous energy flowing through that weekend.

A On the Saturday of the event you will see that we did a quick 20-minute "cutting the cords" or "defragmenting" Clearing, then we did a personal Clearing, and then Sunday we had another big Activation.

A Also on our website you will find almost everything that Franco and I have done over the past three to four years. All the calls/webcasts, all the Clearings/Activations, all the Q&A's, all the events we have done. Everything that we had recordings for have been posted there. It's all there for assistance. For you to access, for you to download, listen to, and pass on to others.

A Because it's time to move forward and move quickly.

A About two years ago when Franco and I were doing some work and we really felt clarity that the two matrices, i.e. the original matrix and the super-imposed matrix...we could see all the activity within the illusionary matrix. And we know that there will come a time when the true matrix is coming into it and will dissolve the original matrix.

A And it's getting closer. It hasn't happened yet, but we're pretty close to it.

A And what will assist all change, no matter what happens in the world...we are living in critical times...we see the peaceful demonstrations in Turkey, the peaceful demonstrations in Brazil, in Bulgaria...people coming forward with their truth like Eric Snowden...and there are many more coming forward who are saying, "I can no longer live with myself knowing this information." There are some scientists coming forward about vaccines saying, "I can't sleep at night unless people know this!"

A It's a time of truth.

A And the more we ground ourselves in Oneness, the more we ground ourselves in joy and peace, the faster we move through the 4th Dimension and get into the 5th Dimension.

A We talked about the fact that, as things stand right now, the planet will be entering the 5th Dimension sometime around 2015. However, that is totally flexible...depending on how many people wake up. If humanity advances faster than that, then that time frame advances faster.

A And I'm all for it being faster! (laughs)

A I find the 4th Dimension kind of like being "in-between." And I am anxious to hop into the 5th all the way! (laughs) Do you agree, Franco?

F Absolutely. It has been long-awaited.

A One question we had was about the Activations. Because there are a lot of events happening for June 21st and people are wondering what to do or how to choose.

A And what I always tell people is, "Go where you feel guided." As long as you are meditating and clearing and doing whatever it is that you are called to do and you are in a peace, love-centered state, then, by all means, do it! Do whatever you feel guided to do.

A Franco and I work in a very specific way. We love working with each other and we love assisting you. We do make any teachings we share with you or any Activations or Clearings or Meditations, we have them be very much up-to-the-minute.

A But feel free to follow your heart. Wouldn't you say so, Franco?

F Exactly. There are a lot of people coming together. There's a lot of facilitators.

F But we are co-creating at different states. But it all assists the whole. Every facet of it. Do you need to run around and be exposed to everything? No. You follow your own inner guidance.

F Because wherever you are going to be led...you will not make a mistake. Even though you may go somewhere and you may feel, "No, I don't belong here." That is not a mistake. It's just the fact that you got to see what resonates and doesn't resonate with you, and to really become more discerning as to what is in alignment with you and what is not.

F Whatever...no matter even if the information is not 100%...always...there's always seeds in everything. So just get that part of it. But that is not to say that one thing is better than another.

F You follow your own inner guidance and you will be exactly where you need to be and will be exposed to whatever you need to be exposed to.

F And then you move on from there. To wherever that may lead you.

F Everybody has the same desire at the soul level. Whether or not they are projecting that on the outside depends on their state of being and so forth. So we can't turn around and say that one's better than the other. Because we will be drawn to exactly the experiences we need to be drawn to.

F I've heard people say, "Well I was drawn to this or that, but I found out it wasn't 100%," and so forth. And so I say, "Well, where are you now because of it? It was still necessary for you to go through it...or else you wouldn't have gone."

F So, yes, follow your own inner guidance and do whatever you feel drawn to. And just go for the ride and see how it feels. And always be in the state where you can detect whether it resonates or doesn't resonate...or whatever needs to change you just allow it to change as you go along.

F So that's the guidance in that direction.

A OK. Let's move on to another question, as follows:

"What do you think is a priority these days...or a good balance: either anchoring, drawing in the vibration, and living full in 4-D, or emulating the 5-D vibration and aiming to stay in that state?"

F Well, on a personal level you are going to do whatever you are most guided to do.

F When people are going through a lot of emotional upheaval, things are being activated. So anything that's coming out, anything that's changing in yourself or being triggered in yourself...actually it's for you to provide a completion with it. To get the learning from it, shift from it, and let that go.

F Sometimes these energies, these emotional experiences and so forth become overpowering and then you can get into the grounding aspect of feeling yourself grounded to your experience...where you may feel ungrounded and like you are bouncing around because of these triggers and the ride that the emotions give you. So you may use the experience that way.

F Others may feel, "OK, I'm now done with a lot of this human 3-D experience. Let me start to connect with the 4th Dimensional consciousness. And the 4th Dimensional consciousness is, again, becoming a lighter state of being where you are not caught up in the drama, you are not being driven by the outside projection that we've created. And that's an identification with our self. And you may feel guided in that way to take steps in that way...which most people are, in many cases, shifting from that. And you are going to take whatever steps are necessary to get there.

F And to "get there" is not just about going to a "place," it's actually about letting go of all the stuff that represents, projects and is holding on to your 3-D world, which is all your definitions, and so forth.

F As for going into 5th, it's just a higher level of that. It is the level where you now are more consciousness that you are Source Itself having a human experience. And now you start utilizing the human experience in a more enlightened state of using it no longer as your definition of who you are. But use it as truly what it is: it's a vehicle, it's a process and an experience, and you activate and utilize every aspect of the physicality, of the outside world, to learn, to grow, to become a grander aspect of Who You Are.

F So you will be at different levels depending on how it feels for you.

F As a collective, yes, then the more you can step into the 4th and then the 5th, it is of course creating openings for everybody around you...including the whole planet.

F As you start stepping more into the 4th...because a lot of people get caught up in saying, "Well, I'm playing both worlds. I have to go play the 3rd Dimensional consciousness world where, "I have to go work, and I have to play the different roles, and I have to define myself, and I have to act this way around my family, and I have to act this way around my friends, and so forth. And then, of course, I'm gravitating towards the 4th Dimensional consciousness, or the 5th, where I'm actually outside of those definitions and categories of playing the game. And I feel torn in both ways, and I'm playing in both worlds." You can do that temporarily if there's where you are trying to get your grounding in feeling your way from one to the other.

F But the highest servitude for anyone who you are connecting with...be it family, friends, anyone...including the whole planet...is for you to go fully into the state of the 4th and 5th Dimensional consciousness. And that is not only for you own highest good, but it is the most powerful state.

F If you are playing out in a 4th Dimensional state...or a much more enlightened state within the family dynamics...as much as they may find you foreign or that something's changed with you...they may even classify you as weird or something like that...in actual fact, the highest servitude is to be in that state...is to be Who You Are as you are upgrading yourself along the way.

F And the energy that you carry, the choices that you make, the reflections and the responses that you have when you interact with other people at first may seem weird or feel out of place, or something of that nature. But eventually...remember, deep inside, they're saying, "Yes, you feel like home to me. Even though my ego mind is rejecting it and saying, "This is crazy. I don't want to be part of this and so forth. This is not real." But, realistically, it is the highest servitude for them. Because that's what they are asking for.

F Just the fact that you can be 100% yourself and you are choosing to do so...wherever you are, each and every soul has full control as to whether or not they wish to participate and play with you. If they are in your environment and you are being yourself and whether they are being triggered or they are feeling connected with you...that is their choice. It's their soul's choice to be part of it or not.

F Some people say, "Well, if I am just being myself, it means that I will rock everybody's world!"

F Well, be yourself. And let them rock their own world....because that's what's really happening. By being yourself they are being rocked by coming to you to be rocked so that they can then make a shift within themselves.

F Because each and every soul wants to utilize this beautiful, powerful ride to awaken and to step forward even further.

F We are creating a whole new reality. Virtually every single soul on the planet is saying, "We are done with this! How can we now change it? How can I change myself?"

F Everybody's is wanting to change in one way or another.

F As much as the ego mind may turn around and say, "No! I like my world the way it is," the soul is saying, "No, we need to move on."

F Now, not all of them will be able to "successfully" (I shouldn't really use that word) completely align with that in that right away, however, the soul will continue until it says, "OK, I can't do it and so I'm going to move on." And it's done in love and there's a whole beautiful dance that happens with that.

F So the answer to that question is that you follow how you feel guided within yourself.

F If you are going through intense stuff, you can do a lot more grounding.

F You have to understand, there's a positive aspect to the grounding, too. If you're grounding to the planet and nature itself...even though nature is going through a transformation...it is reflecting a more 4th Dimensional consciousness energy. But that does not limit you because the moment you ground yourself to the planet, you are going at the pace of the planet...which, in many cases, is much more advanced for some souls.

F But you can go way further than that. Because, as you step further forward, you are actually accentuating and assisting the planet and everybody on the planet, too. So going into full engrainment in the 4th and then into the 5th and allowing your consciousness to expand even further...then that's even more powerful than anything else.

F So just follow that aspect of it within yourself.

F There is no right or wrong, or better way of doing it.

F Just allow yourself to really emanate your Essence.

F And by paying attention and making adjustments as you go along...and the easy way to make adjustments is if something no longer feels in alignment with you, you work on letting it go, clearing that part of it, and making adjustments.

F And if that part of my world does not sit well with me...and when we are talking about not “fitting well” it’s not because, “I am rejecting it, upset about it, or I hate it, or I have to judge it,” or anything of that nature. It’s more about, “I feel like I’m not in alignment here.” It’s just that that part does not feel like a part of you any longer...and then you start making those adjustments...you just easily make the adjustments.

F And if you get stuff from the ego mind, you know what to do with that: just basically play with it (laughs).

F It’s all good! We are moving on and we are going to increase the experience of our adventure.

F And that’s it!

F And just keep moving in that direction.

A Yes. Now we have another question as follows:

“I feel that the shift is all about getting back to community and co-creation. I feel drawn to community more and more, yet I am still living a somewhat isolated experience. How can I shift that? Will my soul simply create alignments with other like-minded souls? I yearn for this.”

F Yes, that’s true, that this Oneness consciousness which has been activated is about coming together. Coming together at first with the community within our environment...and a lot of times the community might be the family dynamic, or a community of friends...or a community of like-minded people. Then the community encompasses more of the area in which you are living. And, of course, now we live in the electronic age so our community is global in many ways...especially if we are connecting through the internet...and that’s a very powerful tool for people to connect in that respect. But that community continues to expand. It goes on to the country, then it goes ever broader.

F Because Oneness consciousness is about every single soul on the planet. There is no division...ever. So it is about coming together.

F And even with the upcoming events as we go along and all these changes, this is not a change where we’re just doing it ourselves. We are individualized beings in a survival of the fittest, struggle, strongest, who’s-going-to-make-it type of environment. That was the old modality; that was the 3rd Dimensional state of consciousness. And it was about me making it and it doesn’t matter about the rest.

F It’s completely different now. Where we’re at right now, it’s us coming together and doing it together, working together.

F So anything that comes along that might be challenging, any disruptions or anything of that nature in our old 3-D world, it’s about bringing us together so we can work as a community. Because at that point in time, everything can be achieved.

F And even the changes...when we're trying to make changes in our environment by our self, you will find that it is a little bit more difficult to do so because you're only one unit. Now that doesn't mean that you shouldn't, but simply the fact that you're doing it is stimulating everybody around you anyway.

F However, the more powerful way is when more and more people come together and they are drawn together to work together. Then what do we do? We are basically now all taking a part in that role to make that shift occur. And even if there is a disruption, people not only come together, but they also share with one another.

F And you'll see that there's a much more powerful harmony that comes along. And you'll see an ease and smoothness of the transition.

F And it's not about communities coming together and saying, "OK, this is our community." It's about a welcoming, open community which basically allows more and more souls to participate, more and more souls to be exposed to it. Even though they may not be totally in alignment right away, but they're exposed and so the shift happens with them.

F Yes, we desire to connect, and it's great that you feel that. And take the steps, whatever you feel guided to do, either connecting with people online or whatever.

F But don't make that as a project for yourself, in that, "I need to have this," or anything of that nature. Because then, what we're doing, is just creating more struggles. And then, of course, it's not going to happen with ease.

F Your soul and other souls are looking for each other to complement and assist each other. So when they do come together, it's in a very complementary fashion where they facilitate each other. They recognize...the souls recognize...that they are each other's aspect...aspects of each other. That we are all One, anyway. Especially now that these activations are in place.

F The mind itself...the ego mind and our programming...still says that we are separated; it's about ourselves. It's about the one amongst the many who has to try and step in there, fit in, protect themselves and do whatever else. And that's how you can get into survival. This is how the whole survival, struggle, competition and all that stuff came into play as it was part of the separation.

F But now it's not about survival; it's about coming together and flourishing together, thriving and creating an environment and a playground for each and every soul to enjoy and play together.

F It's not about struggle. Because when you bring people together who are like-minded, everybody does their little part, whatever it may be, whatever role...and then there is no struggle or any difficulties at all. Because everybody is basically sharing and allowing each one to play a specific role and to complement each other.

F There is no competition because we're not comparing each other saying, "Well, you're better than I am and I have to look a certain way to be part of you. Or I need to do something better so that I can make myself feel good," or anything of that nature. None of that will exist.

F You will see each other as a facet of each other, but you'll both see that each one is there to be slightly different to create the beautiful canvas and tapestry of this beautiful experience that we're creating.

F We're not here to be the same. We're not here to be moulded into all doing the same thing.

F We all here to be slightly different. And that's how we learn from one another.

F So it's not about competition any more, it's about learning from one another, experiencing through one another.

F And so once that becomes more ingrained...which it is becoming...you're not going to have all those other modalities.

F So, yes, it starts off with communities.

F But you have to keep in mind: it's not about, "I have to find somebody so that I can feel good or that I can be part of something, and then I'll be able to make it."

F Because you're not depending on one another to shift. You are complementing one another, you are accentuating one another. But the work is still your own.

F So the thing is to not put the emphasis on, "I have to find or be with somebody in order to make it."

F Because the moment that you are ready for that other phase, and the observation was made, the soul will make the alignment. "OK, we're ready!" The soul says, "We're ready right now to start connecting with more souls that are like-minded so we can play together."

F But if we feel lack in that respect, then that's something we need to clear.

F You need to be okay...100%...being alone.

F But also in the state of being open for other connections to take place. And the soul will say, "OK, we're done with that part...we're OK being alone. Let's bring in other aspects of ourselves." And when you're ready to be alone, all of a sudden, you have people around you all the time. And you're in communities. You're invited to places...or whatever it is. "Let's be part of this. Let's work together on that."

F But, again, whenever you're doing that, when you're in community you're still being yourself 100%.

F And this is the other thing that I find with people a lot of times...they are looking for like-minded people, but then the ego mind gets involved and says, "I want people who think the same as I do." Well, it's not about thinking the way they do.

F It's about being at a certain frequency that matches each other and also complementing each other.

F And when I say "complement" each other I don't mean, "Well, you're good and you're doing such a great job." What I mean by "complement" is accentuating, expanding your own personal experience and the collective experience.

F So when you're coming together, it's a matter of each person experiencing in their own individual way of experiencing, and that, in turn, enhances all the others.

F Because we are actually learning from one another more than anything else.

F We're not here looking for similarities in the sense that we need to be exactly the same.

F It's about being a certain frequency and working together, expanding each other's frequencies, and still being the individual Essence That We Are.

F Because, by doing so, it is the most powerful way to accentuate each other.

A We have another question to clarify an earlier point:

"Can you please explain what 'acting out' 4-D and 5-D consciousness is, exactly?"

A So maybe describe how being in 4-D and being in 5-D is.

F Well, it's not about going into 4th and 5th Dimension and "acting" per se saying, "This is the role that I'm going into." It's not about one role or another.

F Realistically, shifting into 4th and 5th is a very natural, and it is exactly what the energies around us and what we ourselves are choosing to do. So it's not actually any effort in the sense of starting to play a specific "role."

F It is about observation and noticing what brings us back to the old programs like, "I'm in a physicality. I am this. I define myself this way. I need to act this way. I'm going in that direction." So when we look at the distinction between one and the other, basically the more we go into 4th and 5th, the less we define ourselves as a physicality with a definition...meaning, first I'm a male/female, that I'm in a physicality, that I'm my career, that's I'm my stories, that I am my history, that I'm my education, my religion, my culture, what my family dynamics represented,) or anything of that nature. Or that, "I'm broken, I'm well, I'm this star sign, I'm this personality." We don't define any of that. You get to the point where all of that dissolves.

F You will also notice that when you are going into 4th and 5th, you are not all caught up in the drama or anything of that nature. Meaning if somebody is panicking and worrying about what's happening in the outside world or in their own world, you will also see the perfection. You'll start to notice, "Oh, this is a beautiful path that this person is going through. It's their opportunity to learn from it and also to shift away from it." You'll see that the more they get caught up in that, the more they are defining themselves in terms of a world that has 'ended,' in the sense that the 3-D world is coming to a close. And they are still in there.

F But you will see that they need to experience that. So you are not getting caught up in it. Instead you see the perfection and beauty of whatever they're going through.

F And with you holding that energy just by being there...because you are in that state...you're facilitating the person by just being there. Even if you don't say a single word!

F Now, in the 4th and 5th Dimensional state of consciousness, you're not seeing, "What's good, what's bad, what's wrong, what's right?" or anything of that nature. You're not getting caught up in "This is the way it is or that's the way it is."

F You'll start to notice even more that you're a pure potentiality being having your own personally-designed experience. And your experience is designed fully through your own choice...not at the mind level but at the level of the Essence of Who You Are.

F And, of course, you will understand more that you are that Essence having a human experience.

F But the other part of it is when you are creating all of that, when you are experiencing yourself in the 4th and 5th Dimensional consciousness, you're not getting caught up in the sense where you're looking at yourself as, "I'm here and I'm playing this particular role. And I need to play this particular role in this particular fashion. And I need to go through all these processes in order for myself to get to the next level," or anything of that nature.

F You will see that you're completely fluid. That everything around you, even the interactions with people and however it plays out, it's all co-created, it's all perfectly designed for you for this movement that you're choosing.

F But as you're going more and more into 4th and 5th, you become more of that Essence.

F First of all, Oneness becomes much more accentuated; you don't see yourself separate from anyone.

F And your natural state of peace, neutrality, and unconditional love is achieved.

F So not only do you see yourself as One with everyone, but you have a very profound unconditional love for everyone...no matter what they're going through, no matter what is being played out.

F And you know it's only a play, you know it's only temporary, you know that it's part of their own co-creation for their own journey.

F And that if you're in their presence, then you may feel guided to share something. First of all, no one's broken and you'll never see anybody as being broken. You might see an opportunity for you to share something...but that's it.

F So, by doing that, you are basically in your 4th and 5th Dimensional state of consciousness.

F The process here is to unravel all that has been represented to you in this 3-D world...which is basically the outside world, the physicality, and so on and, "I need to play the game."

F Because you have to look at as even though part of the changes that occurred was that they were in the system...in a world that still has money, in a world that still has all these different structures in place, you now start seeing it as the stage. You're not seeing it as, "This is what is, and I have to deal with it."

F Instead, you see the stage...and you choose to play within the stage the way you want to. But you don't get caught up in the stage itself.

F For example, somebody has to go to work. So you say, "OK, we are still in the money world and I still need to make an income. But because I'm 4-D/5-D I'm not going to go to work," or something like that. And, in a sense, that might be possible, depending on what experience you need to have. However, if it comes to the point where you still need to have to go to work because there's still a structure in place...which is transforming, changing and evolving each and every moment of each day, but it's not quite there where you don't need to do that in the same old fashion.

F In 4th and 5th Dimensional consciousness, first of all, when you go there you will see an opportunity to play. So you're not going to get caught up in the drama, you're not going to get caught up in the severity or seriousness or whatever the game is that might be playing out. You will be very light with it. You'll realize that you're just playing there.

F And in that state you will notice that the experience will be completely different anyway. It feels a lot lighter.

F While you're in that state and you're actually being yourself 100%, you are creating a very powerful transformational energy, transformational state for everyone participating there.

F So you're now saying, "Well, I need to go change the world," but just because you're going to the workplace or something like that, you still have the same opportunity.

F Now at some point, you may feel like you do not need to be there and the energy doesn't match...because it's not about you feeling uncomfortable and feeling like you don't want to be there anymore. Instead, you'll say, "OK, it doesn't match. I can't be of service." And you won't even be thinking that...you will just feel it. "It's not serving myself or others at this point anymore because I've done what I needed to do," and you'll feel that need to move on. And it's very easy.

F It's not like, "Oh, my God! I don't know what I'm going to get next," or anything of that nature. Because that, again, is the 3-D world.

F So when you're in the 4th and 5th, it doesn't mean that there is no 3rd Dimensional consciousness whatsoever in the role playing...but you're not in it, you're not defining yourself in it anymore. You just go out and play when you need to play.

F Because you'll notice that, as you're shifting more and more, the need to play in those levels becomes less and less necessary for you to be there. So things will change around you anyway.

F So that's kind of what we're looking at as an explanation on that aspect of it.

A Yes. And you know, we often talk about being in a state of neutrality. Often people see the word "neutral" as meaning blah, meaning nothing, meaning feeling nothing. And I think sometimes we gravitate to feeling good, gravitate to wanting laughter, excitement, friendship, and all the human emotions that we consider to be positive human emotions. And then someone might hear you say, "Go into a neutral state," and they might say, "But I like when I feel happy. I like laughing. What do you mean I have to be neutral now?"

A So can you explain what you define as the neutral state?

F Well, that's an excellent question. I'm glad you brought that up.

F When we talk about neutral, it means that you are not driven by your emotions. You're not driven by the outside, external world.

F Some people might say that you become hostage to the experience on the outside. You've given yourself to the point where anything that happens...

F For example, if something is said or something happens around you, you go into react mode. And the react mode might be a panic, might be a programmed response where you go into fear or all of a sudden it's all about feeling struggle, survival, or you go into worry in the sense where you go into some form of a reactive mode.

F So when I'm talking about neutrality, you're now no longer reactive.

F You're now in a state where, no matter what's happening around you, you are still fully in charge of how you flow with any experience.

F So if you want to experience happiness, or sadness, or if you want to experience anything, you do it...but you do it fully in any way you want...but without getting caught up in a reactive mode.

F Because as long as we are in a reactive mode, what happens is that we are not in charge...on the physical plane...in charge of our experience. Basically if our emotions get triggered, then our emotions take over and the program takes over...so we go for a ride each and every time.

F But it's not about being blind as if there's nothing.

F Neutrality is fluidity.

F Neutrality is pure potentiality.

F Neutrality is a dance, a play where you actually dance and play fully as long as you choose, each and every moment.

F Because once you get into reactive mode, you only have that mode.

F See if you see someone who has a certain response mechanism...it could be yourself or others around you...and anytime anyone says, "Boo!" to them, they go into an anger state or they go into a reactive state, and they lose all aspects of having anything different than the automatic response where, "Oh, poor me! I'm the victim! Everybody hates me! Nobody likes me!" and this and that. Or responding that, "Everybody's such and such," and so forth. And they are not able to see the dance in all of it and are not able to enjoy it.

F So you could turn around and say you have less enjoyment when you are caught in the programs. Especially if the programs are completely repeated over, and over, and over again.

F But when you are in neutrality, you are now free to dance and play with all of it...completely.

F So you have much more freedom and ways of experiencing.

F And through that you can actually shift it in any way.

F So you want to accentuate it in any way, or have it one way versus another? Sp anything that it plays out, you can choose from a multitude, a variety of different ways of playing the game, of experiencing it, of ways of going into the whole dance of it.

F Actual neutrality is so empowering.

F When you go into neutrality, you're actually going into a state where we have so much more at our disposal to use in how we experience life. We are not stuck on just one track.

F One example is, if we are in a reactive, locked-up state, it's like we have one CD with certain tracks on it and anytime you want to play something, you push the button and you can play only whatever tracks (or responses, or experiences) that are on that CD.

F The moment you go into neutrality, you are not bound to that CD. You are now open fully and completely to create anything you want and have a multitude of choices as to what else you want to play with.

F So, in actual fact, you've really expanded yourself in that state.

A Yes, sometimes people get confused about what we mean by that.

A It's basically tuning into the emotion completely and experiencing it completely without being "pushed" to it (by a program) but more by "choosing" it. And if you want to feel excitement and laughter and enthusiasm, then by all means do that. But the emotions don't have control over you or whatever external circumstances may happen.

F Yes. For example, if someone gets triggered...when you're not in a neutral state...say you get triggered, something happens in your life and you go into an emotional state of depression or anger or something of that nature. Say it's a relationship break-up. And suddenly we get into that reactive state because we're not neutral about the experience.

F In the neutral state you can actually see the perfection and you can see how it's been co-created too.

F But say you're going through a relationship break-up and you go into this automatic state of depression, of feeling sad, of being victimized because they took advantage of you or they didn't love you, and all that stuff. And you may be living in that whole experience for whatever time it takes until you finally get enough of it and say, "OK, I've got to get out of this!" But still, that program may be there and then you may be shy about venturing into another opportunity.

F But say the relationship ends and you are in a neutral state, you may choose to experience sadness or whatever...temporarily...and then you open yourself up and say, "That was a great opportunity." And you're not attaching definitions to it like, "I wasn't good enough. I should have done this or I should have done that. They didn't like me. They took advantage of me." There's none of that! Because you're not defined by any of that.

F In neutrality, it's "OK, great. Now let me go play somewhere else." And they do that. Then they experience someone else.

F And in that neutrality you can actually go from one experience to another very easily. So you really open a whole platform of play.

F So you are playing with whole spectrums of colours instead of just one colour, if I may use that as an analogy.

F So it's completely different in that respect.

F So it is very much more open.

F You see, somebody who gets neutral and they are OK with things, they have so many more experiences! Because they play here and then it's, "Oh, I'm done with this," and then they go play with something else. And when they're done with that, they will shift to something else. And if they want to play with certain people, they play with certain people. They're not triggered or angry or feel a certain way that they need to protect themselves or anything like that with anyone. They just go out and play...and just experience each moment...and play. And they go from one place to another.

F So you can see how much more you get to experience, how much more freedom that you get to have.

F You are really accentuating every part of it. By just being in that state.

A Yes. Another question we had was as follows:

"We have been referring in the Clearings to the Central Sun. What and where is the Central Sun and how does it relate to our Sun and the Earth?"

F That's a good one! Now there's a couple of things there. I know some people have brought up the fact about why are we using our Sun and why not Source, and stuff like that.

F You will notice that in the Clearings now we are bringing in all three (i.e. our Sun, the Central Sun, and Source Itself)

F Basically our Sun is an energetic field that is being projected out to facilitate and to host all the other planets. Our particular Sun transmits a certain frequency. It's not a big ball of hydrogen burning. (laughs) It's really a frequency that, yes, because of our physical form and how it's tuned will turn it into heat and it may feel like it's this hot, burning ball...and it does feel warm and so forth. But it transmits a certain frequency.

F Our planet is operating at a certain frequency. For example, our planet is right now operating at about 13.45 Hz and the Sun is at about 28 Hz and the Central Sun is about 210 Hz.

F The Central Sun's role is an energetic field that hosts all the different Suns. So it actually emanates a frequency that hosts all the different Suns, and each Sun hosts all the different planets that are revolving around them. And they're really to support the playgrounds and schoolyards that are there.

F And each of the Suns emanates a certain frequency. And each of them projects a certain experience.

F It's like the projector analogy where you run a film on it. So each planet is the film and the projector is the Sun. But that's only the first level, because there are stages...it's a little complex to explain how it works, but it's not that complex either. So it basically hosts us.

F The Central Sun is at 210 Hz...it actually supplies a certain frequency to host all the different Suns, at the different frequencies. And the Central Sun actually facilitates each Sun to upgrade its frequency. And, turn, each of the Suns facilitate the upgrades in the planetary aspects of it.

F For example, our Sun is playing a very powerful role in transforming, first of all the planet and everything on the planet, as well as humanity in their physical form. And it is restructuring us.

F Because what's happening is it's increasing the vibration and frequency of not only the planet itself but also everyone here, including ourselves.

F So this is how we're being transformed.

F So the Central Sun is in the center of our galactic quadrant. So it plays a role in that aspect of it.

F So now, as part of the work that we're doing, we are utilizing part of the frequencies coming from our Central Sun to upgrade and accelerate our stepping forward even more than...Because our Sun itself is facilitating greatly. But if we can access even higher spectrums of light and higher frequencies, even though we can't use them to their full force...it is only in a partial way. But because our Sun is at 28 Hz and the Central Sun is at 210 Hz, you can see how the Central Sun would be able to accentuate things even more.

F Then when we are connecting to Source...and what we call Source is the Life Force Energy of Everything That Is...which is us and everything around us...Although everything is still Source, everything is emanating different frequencies to create different experiences, different playgrounds, different ways to express and experience Itself through It. But we are still Source.

F So when we are going right "back to" Source and Source Codes, they are the Main Codes that created everything...and is everything. And we are part of that Creation because we are part of that Creator and we are that Creator, and we are the Essence of Everything That Is because we are Itself.

F So, in actual fact, we are Source Itself having a human experience.

F But it's a projected human experience because, in actual fact, we are not human at all...it's just a role we are playing and projecting as part of our experiential aspect and component.

F So we're combining all three.

F We're taking in energies from Source Codes, which are from Source Itself and which are the purest and highest advanced Codes there are.

F And the Source Codes are increasing all the time.

F How does Source Itself increase its Codes? Through the experiences of every aspect of Itself having an experience. So everything and anything that you're experiencing as well as everything and anything from any planet, any soul...we're all connected as One...are all accentuating Source Itself. And that's why it all exists...all these fragmented aspects of Itself going out and playing. Because as more and more is achieved and more and more is experienced and the more and more Creation advances Itself, then the Source Codes themselves are upgraded.

F So we are utilizing Source Codes. But what we are doing is speeding up the process to move into a state which is more in alignment with where we intended...as Source Itself or as a collective...to be at. So we are utilizing all of that.

F So this is why we bring in Source Codes or a stream of Light from Source, with all its spectrums and all its encodements and also the vibration at which It operates...and I'm not sure what that vibration is, but it's quite high because it encompasses all spectrums.

F I know the Central Sun is around 210 Hz, our Sun is at 28 Hz and our planet is running at 13.45 Hz at the moment.

F So all of it is facilitating in this transformation and so we utilize all of that.

F And usually we're guided...the soul is guided, as a collective...to choose what will facilitate and at what ratio...because the ratio changes based on our state. So, depending on what state we are in and what we are ready for, then the ratios of spectrums in the columns of Light we use in the Clearings will vary to match what we need next.

A Yes. I've just heard about a new movie that's available called Solar Revolution, (search online) in which scientists explain about the solar flares and about how the Sun and humanity are integrated. And how, as the Sun is sending us these solar flares, what it's actually doing is re-programming the neurons of the brain. And that's something we haven't talked about for a long time, Franco, so it's great to see that science is demonstrating this. We've talked previously about how the Sun affects us and how the energies will totally re-write the neural synapses, and that's what the movie talks about as well.

F Exactly. And on December 21, 2012, we had an alignment with the Central Sun too, which gave us a really powerful boost. And that was what tipped us into the shift aspect of it, going into 4th Dimensional consciousness. So basically it was enough energy to boost it off onto the opposite scale, and be able to shift it from 3rd to 4th.

F So this is all part and parcel of what we're playing with in making this take place.

F With respect to the Global Re-Empowerment Activation that we are doing tonight...what we're doing at this time is we are going through a re-empowerment process.

F We have gone through dis-empowerment for thousands and thousands of years. And what that means is that basically we have disconnected ourselves from knowing Who We Are and also knowing that we are fully in charge of our experience.

F Even a child coming onto the planet, even the moment they are coming through the physicality, they are already coming somewhat empowered...because that's our natural state...knowing, "I'm here to create, I'm here to play." Now the empowerment aspect, in most cases, will vary depending on the soul's state of consciousness...depending on how many veils they have removed, and the more they remove the more conscious they become and become more empowered anyway. But here comes a soul who is at a certain level of empowerment knowing that, "I'm here to create. I chose to be here. I chose everything and I am fully in charge of how unfoldments are going to take place."

F Then the child comes to the parents and all of a sudden the parents are playing this role...and there's nothing wrong with that, because this was still part of the process at that point in time...and it was still agreed upon at some level to make it happen...the parents all of a sudden become empowered and say, "Well, this child is my child. It's my responsibility and I need to mould it and shape it, and so forth. And it's my responsibility to take care of it and also to make sure that it stays on a certain path that will match the rest of the world." So that process itself starts to dis-empower the child.

F The child wants to experience, wants to play, wants to really be Itself...whatever that may be, because it doesn't really define itself at that time, it just wants to experience and play and so forth. But then the role of the parent usually is one of dis-empowering them and programming them with, "No. This is the way life is. And this is the way we need to be. You have to act this way. You can't do that." And what you're doing...at a level...is you're programming a dis-empowered state where the child is not free to be itself, not free to express itself, not free to really just "be," in any way...you now need to follow a certain program: a certain way of thinking, a certain way of feeling, playing...what's right, what's wrong, what's good, what's bad..."You should do this, you shouldn't do that, this is who we are, this is our culture," and so on. And so the child is ingrained with that.

F And then you go to school and you have further dis-empowerment. You can't use your creativity, you can't just express and be yourself and learn from whatever you want to learn. Now you need to dis-empower yourself so that you give power to this teacher, this person who is telling you, "This is the way life is. This is what we need to learn. You don't question it," ...even though you may not agree with it and you may not see it as being in alignment. And what you're doing, at that point in time, is you're giving power to whoever is playing the authoritative role in the classroom...or any series of classrooms as you go through the entire educational system and all the different authorities around there.

F And you keep dis-empowering yourself so that you are not any longer representing yourself as this beautiful open being that You Are.

F Then you go into life and you are programmed through all the different structures that are in place: the media, and so forth. And all of it is taking away from your Pure Essence.

F Of course, we're then into the control structures that are in place.

F You go into the banking system and now you are further dis-empowered because you've given away your power to say how much money you can have, can't have, what you can do, can't do, what you owe, don't owe, what I can take away from you, what you can have, and how long you can have it.

F You go into the governmental system and they tell you exactly, "We make the rules and you follow them. Whatever we say is the way it is. And you have no choice to do anything you want because if it doesn't match what we tell you to do then you will have to go through this whole process of incarceration, reprimanding," or whatever it is. So all of a sudden there's more dis-empowerment in that respect. And so now the government is empowered to run your life.

F And we do the same thing with religion. The moment that we put ourselves in the hands of going down a religious path, we've just dis-empowered ourselves even further. First of all, we are connected directly to Source and We Are Source Itself. But now we go through that process of saying, "No, you're not Source. You're not this or that. Not that deity 'up there.' You need to play a different role. You need to think like us. You need to follow our teachings. You need to do (whatever it is)," and you can't express yourself in any way. Even though religion is going to change, but most of the time it is still doctrine. So you dis-empower yourself of your own self your own consciousness and you say, "OK, now I have to believe this."

F And the same thing goes on with all the other different levels and structures that we have and I won't cover all of them.

F So we've gone through this whole process of dis-empowering ourselves lifetime after lifetime after lifetime. And the soul has a lot of these imprints in place.

F So now, with all the changes that are occurring, we still feel that we are just miniscule, "We have no say. We need to fight to get our way. The government has to change because they have to run the world for us." No.

F The re-empowerment that we are talking about is the fact that we all come together and say, "OK, now we are going to co-create what matches what we desire at this point in time, and we are no longer giving power to anyone else to dictate our journey. Even though all of it has served and we've all agreed to it, now we are actually taking the reins back."

F Now, re-empowerment means that we see that we are all One, we are all equal. No one is higher than anyone else. No one is better than anyone else. No one is separate from anyone else.

F So we truly understand that there is no hierarchy, there is no control structures or anything of that nature. So any difference that occurs is that we are all expressing ourselves differently. And that is absolute perfection in that respect. But we are all at the same level in the True Essence of Who We Truly Are.

F We do express different states of consciousness...meaning how much more or less are we aware that we are Source, and how are we ultimately expressing that.

F So you have people who are more “enlightened” than other people, but that’s just because they have gone through a certain path and they have now stepped forward in that respect. But each and every soul is on the goal path to enlightenment, even though they take different paths to get there, they choose different experience and so forth...and that is meant to be that way because that’s how we create variety and that’s how we express and experience ourselves even more grandly as a Whole.

F But, at the same time, as we are going through this aspect of re-empowerment at this point, we are seeing ourselves more as being fully in charge, and that we are collectively creating every aspect of our self.

F So that’s what we’re doing with the re-empowerment.

F And globally we’re taking...it’s not a fight where we are taking the power away from the control structures that we have allowed to come into play.

F It’s about saying, “Thank you for everything that you provided: the limitations, the restrictions, and so forth that have been projected because of what we chose to play with. Now we are choosing to transform that. We are no longer choosing to be fed one stream of experience and being told how to conduct our lives. We are now choosing to co-create something together, so that everyone flourishes, everyone thrives in this experience, everyone has full access to everything that exists.”

F But to go back one step there...we are all in different states of enlightenment and we are assisting each other with the enlightenment. That means that when someone understands the bigger picture a little more, then you share it with other aspects of yourself so they understand the bigger picture. Then you come together so that we all understand the bigger picture, and we are actually more empowered to create something.

F If we feel that we are at the mercy of the control structure, that we have no say, that we cannot change anything because we have to find someone to come in there to save us, someone to change things for us, someone who has power over us who can say, “Well, yes, you are finally ready to experience something different.” But as long as we are focusing on that or using that approach, then we are still in a very dis-empowered state.

F Now it’s a matter of us becoming empowered and saying, “Great. We’re not waiting for anyone. We’re doing it together. And we’re transforming everything.”

F And you have to understand, even the ones who have taken the roles of dictators or anything of that nature, they are still living on the planet with us, and they are all choosing to do the same thing. They want to be relieved of the duty of the role that they've played, so they can be participating with us. They don't want to play the bully role any longer. "I want to participate. I want to play with everybody. Because it's not as much fun playing the bully because I'm always isolated playing the dictator. But I want to play with everyone. I've isolated myself. And that's been fine up to this point in time, but I want to participate even more. So let's all come together."

F So the Global Re-Empowerment process that we're doing here tonight is to really activate that we are now coming to a conscious state, and we are collectively going to transform our human experience and planet...together.

F That's what we're doing.

F And we're not expecting anyone outside of us to do us any favours or that we have to continue giving power to the control structure to change things for us.

F The control structures have served. The control structures have played a very specific role for our limited experience.

F But the time has now come for transformation. And that's really what's changing.

F So it's now about saying, "OK, no longer are we playing with limitations."

F And this is very important right now because there is so much coming apart because of that. Because people are not accepting what is being dictated any longer. They are choosing at this point to participate and to actually co-create without having any other aspects of themselves in an isolated form telling us what to do and what not to do, and so forth.

F So we are basically doing the transformation on a collective basis in that regard.

F So that's really the re-empowerment aspect.

F And we are doing this on a global level because we have played this victim role and we've played the, "We have no say in the matter," for so long...which has served, grandly, and has played a very specific role for each and every sole to different degrees...and everything has served in that respect.

F But now we are coming to the point where we want to re-empower each other. And, as we do that, we now come together...and really work together to make the changes.

F So it's not about any more of "them verses us" type of mentality..."They're the dark ones. They're the bad ones," and so forth.

F And like I was saying earlier, with the re-empowerment you are basically connecting with everyone at that point in time. You are not saying, "I am powerful and I have to go forth and do this," and so forth. No.

F The empowerment process is a Oneness aspect where we all re-empower ourselves, we all work together, and we all create a different reality and experience altogether. So that's what that's really all about.

F And that's why we call it the Global Re-Empowerment of Humanity. Because we are re-empowering ourselves to be co-creators coming together to do this.

F And it's completely different than anything we've experienced before.

F Because we've always had this mentality that we were "less than" and that we needed something outside of us or some individuals or groups to dictate our life. And as much as that served and brought us to where we are today, we have outgrown that. We're not at that state any longer. We are not facilitating that.

F And that's part of the shift...when we are talking about neutrality, when we are talking about really accentuating our experience.

F Because in the re-empowerment process, as we start to create our own reality, first and foremost, we will start to see that anything and everything that's on the planet at this point in time is fully accessible to each and every soul.

F There is no one who can own and control anything on the planet.

F And there's so much of that being unravelled right now. Who's controlling our food? Who's controlling our resources? Who's controlling the money system, governing who "has" and who "doesn't have?" Who's controlling the educational system? Who's controlling what we see and don't see? Who's controlling what we experience and don't experience?...and all of that. All of that is in the hands of the control structures.

F And now it is all coming up to the surface and we are starting to see this.

F And, all of a sudden, we have certain companies or corporations, certain ruling bodies that are put in place that say, "You can't have this. You can't have that. You need to follow our rules," and whatever else. And that's been creating a lot of restrictions and limitations for us.

F But as much as that has been dictated up to this time, we are now coming to the realization...and this is part of the re-empowerment...that may have served, but we are no longer in that open platform to play with that any longer.

F We are now realizing that, just the fact that you are coming onto the planet, you have full access to anything and everything on the planet.

F And the planet is a full-blown schoolyard/playground, accessible by everyone.

F There is no need to play bully or “who’s in control of what” any longer.

F We are here...all equal...to play together...as One.

F And through that, anything and everything we do will no longer be about self...meaning, “I need to create a structure which I need to patent or I need to govern so that people have to come to me and pay me or do something for me in order for them to have access to anything. And it’s going to be limited, because not everyone will have access.”

F None of that will be acceptable any longer.

F And anything that we do as a collective, we are going to be doing so that it is accessible to everyone.

F And everyone on the planet has full potentiality to experience anything and everything without any restrictions whatsoever.

F So if we are going to create and do anything whatsoever, we’ll always consider every single soul on the planet. Everyone who’s in a body needs to have full access to whatever we are creating in order for us to continue to play that.

F And that’s part of the re-empowerment that we are coming into.

F So it’s about allowing each and every soul full accessibility as part of the re-empowerment, in a sense, if you want to look at it that way.

F But also taking the driver’s seat in any experience that we choose.

F So that’s the transformation at this point that we’re going through.

F And part of this transformation is going to look a little chaotic sometimes because we are still getting used to this new understanding that we are all here together to have full access to play with everything.

F And even with the stuff that we had talked about...some of the people who are taking steps to foreclose and whatever else, different institutions and so forth that have had power...that’s still just a reflection of where we’re walking into. And even though that’s only a step...using the existing systems...the existing systems will eventually all dissolve.

F We’re going to get to a point...and it’s not that far down the road...where everybody is on an equal playing field and our entire planet will be fully accessible for everyone.

F We don’t need to have borders, we don’t need to have exchange...we don’t have to have any of that.

F Because, in actual fact, we are creating an environment where we can actually be ourselves 100%, all the time...express and create fully and completely...and we’re not in a polarity world, duality or anything of that nature.

F Rather, we have full potentiality to experience anything and everything, completely free...without being restricted or enslaved, or anything of that nature.

F All of it has served. We have agreed to it.

F But now we've collectively agreed that it's time to put this adjustment in place. And that's what's really playing out.

F So the Activation we are doing tonight will facilitate in re-empowering ourselves...so that we are coming together to transform anything and everything that no longer matches our state of being.

F All in peace, though.

F It's not about fighting anything.

F It's about choosing to understand at this point in time that, "I have the freedom to play and do whatever I choose to do. If I don't want to participate, I won't participate. And I don't need to be enslaved by anything anymore."

F And by realizing that...together...we will see that none of the control structures will have power.

F We might choose to create, at this point in time, certain groups that will facilitate to create an environment where it's monitored for everyone to have a similar accessibility while we're still going through the process of de-programming. But, again, it is all wholistic in the sense that it always encompasses the whole. It's always done for the benefit of every single soul on the planet at the same time.

F And as part of this transformation and the re-empowerment too, is realizing that we are going to be having more interactions with beings from other planets. We are going to have more interactions with more aspects of ourselves that are coming from another playground and schoolyard.

F And to realize, as well, that they, too, are not the authorities, they are not any better than we are. They are just other aspects of ourselves.

F Let's put this in context. Our souls have the capability to incarnate here or incarnate on other planets. And, we've always had that opportunity...even though we had a certain imprint that locked us in, but we've kind of broken that now...we've basically stepped out of that. But the fact that you incarnate on one planet or another doesn't make you any different or better, or anything of that nature. You're just experiencing yourself on different planets.

F So any of these beings who are coming in here at any point in time...and many of them have been here for a while, coming and going...they are just in different physicalities, with a different state of consciousness, with a different implant or programming of what they experience on the planet. And when they're coming here, they're equals. And they're our brother/sister souls.

F They may have different technologies they may have discovered. They may have gone through different challenges...or what we might call challenges, although they are not really challenges, they are just opportunities to experience...and figured out how to deal with those things...and they may be able to share some of that so that we don't need to go through a repetitive cycle of re-learning something. Then we can take the short-cut in that regard. But we are still learning from it, and so forth.

F But that does not make them any better or more powerful than us, or anything of that nature.

F It's like us...if we've gone into a shift or something like that and if we were in that state of being and went to another planet...it doesn't matter that we're going to a planet which is still in 3-D and we're going there with 4th and 5th Dimensional consciousness...that doesn't make us better. It just makes us that we're coming in presenting a different experience with a different state of consciousness. And if we can enhance the place that we're visiting, then we will do so. We will never see them as "less," we will never see them as "unfortunate," or that we have power over them. That would not be the case.

F So any being that is in any level of higher consciousness realizes that we are all One. They realize that we are all here to participate and play together.

F And if we can facilitate each other...because the moment we facilitate each other, we are facilitating ourselves.

F So the beings that are coming on the planet...or any other souls that are awakening at a different rate and are sharing with one another, it's just knowing that, "Whatever I do for each and every aspect of myself, enhances the whole."

F And who's the whole? Everyone is the whole.

F Because we are all One.
