

2013 NEW BEGINNINGS

Part 2 of 2

Q & A

January 2013

With

Franco DeNicola and Antonia Hagens, Masterpiece Life

Antonia (“A”)

Franco (“F”)

F Once again, it’s a pleasure to be with you on this call and provide whatever we can to help us move forward...together.

F And this is the key here...is that whatever is being shared is helping each other so that we can do this together, because this is not something that we are doing individually...as much as we are individually doing our own changes and self-discovery within our own journey and presence, but, at the same time, we are all inter-connected. So, at this point in time, for us to see a change in a more environmentally-shaped form, it takes all of us doing it together.

A Absolutely. And for the last several weeks I have been sending out e-mails to our mailing list asking people to please listen to the Clearing we did on “Fear & Entities.” Because, if you are part of this community, it’s because you’re not someone who’s just listening, you are someone who’s actively assisting. Although it might feel like there’s a lot of stuff in you to clear, the reason you’ve been drawn to here is because you are assisting. And by doing that Clearing right now it assists a lot. Because what has been coming up for a lot of people with the energy change is a lot of very old beliefs and fear issues. And things which people may have thought they dealt with in the past, like old memories may be coming up in dreams or all of a sudden in your thoughts...and that is a sign that they are ready to be released.

A So if you can continue doing the clearing on the “Fear & Entities” Clearing well into the month of February, it will greatly assist everything that Franco and I do.

A Also, what has come up with the shift is that a lot of very old and ancient entities that have been attached to family units over generations are being released. And that should provide some openings around families and family units. But it may also feel a little bit weird because you all of a sudden realize how heavy some families felt and now it may feel kind of different. And they are coming up because it's time to send them home. They've done what there were here to assist us with and now it's time that they be sent back...to light...so that we may continue to raise the vibration here on the planet.

F Yes. And the good thing about the releasing aspect of it...I mean their "coming through" and so forth...the identities have been held in a pattern to play the duality and so forth...like you were saying, serving, and so forth. But they are actually looking forward to being released from their role. So all of these archaic energies, entities, and so forth, as they are being released and sent back, they are being released from their "responsibility" ...if I may use that word...for the role that they were playing. So, in actual fact, as much as it may seem...

F Because when I have worked with some of them, it's almost like they are unsure. "You mean I can go? I can leave? I don't have to play this part? What about (so and so) still needing this energy?"

F And it's interesting because some of it is being tied into the fact that not all of the souls have gone through certain polarized changes or certain polarized energies or they may still need it to move forward. In other words (the entity may say), "I still need to play a dark role or a dense role in order for me to assist this soul to move forward, because, without that, it won't be able to move." But, in actual fact, that's not the case any longer. So once they come to that realization and then, of course, the energies are making it very clear that the role they are playing is no longer not only not supported but no longer necessary or needed at this point. So with this Clearing process, it's like, "Ahh!!! I'm released!!! I'm out of here!!! I can move on!!! I can go and work with different energies and play a different role altogether!"

A Yes. And by continuing to do the Clearing on "Fear & Entities", what you are also assisting with is clearing fear on a mass consciousness level...and that's fear in many, many areas.

A Of course a lot of questions that came in from last time that we didn't have a chance to get to were about what to do with the new...you know, there's a lot of fear about debt coming up, that debt was created as an illusion to control. And people are becoming more aware about, let's say, the system that's been put in place to control and enslave people. Lots of places are asking for money for information on how to set yourself "free" (from debt) and so forth...So there are a lot of questions about where do you go with this when you are "awake" and you realize that it is an illusion. The (monetary) system is still in place, still very much part of the 3D world, so how do you move forward? And even more importantly, how do you move forward without getting stuck in that very limited 3D world?

A So why don't we look at that first, Franco, and then we will go on with some other stuff.

F OK. But first, the other thing I wanted to mention about the Clearing of fear and entities and so forth...the one thing that is contributing at this point in time is that the energies that the planet and the collective have achieved at this point in time is not conducive...does not support those darker, lower-vibrating energies. So really the only way they can stay is if you are still holding onto any form of fear because it has to feed off something. But the planet itself is no longer supporting it whatsoever. So it's very easy to clear as long as we let go of our aspects of holding on to any form of fear.

F And I'm talking about that only because we are going to talk about the monetary aspect, because that has a lot of fear around it. So, by letting go of that fear...because that's the only thing the darker energy feeds off right now...because the planetary energetic grid has not supported that (darker energy) for some 25 years.

F However, because of the collective and the frequency of the people still playing with it, it was still being held in place because of the fact that there were still people using those darker energies to create a certain level of polarity in order to assist them in wrapping up some of their experiences. But now even that is not there.

F So the only thing it (the darker energies) can cling to now is fear.

F So when we are doing the Clearing of "Fear & Entities" and so forth...that's why the fear is so powerful...is because when we let go of the fear it has nothing to which to attach. Because that's its only sustenance to keep it in place...these older energies that have played a very dark polarized energy from the past. So that's why that process is very powerful because of the fact that that's the only thing it has to hold onto.

F The other component with all of that is that as we are doing our own processes of clearing, of course we are altering the collective energies because we are made up of those collective energies. Because each one of us who starts to vibrate at a higher frequency and who lets go of these strands and layers of fear, is now creating a much more conducive energy or frequency to actually clear even more rapidly and affect on a collective scale. So it's also creating new channels for other souls to lock into and utilize those frequencies for their own personal clearing.

F So that's why it's so important that we do it. And it makes our work (Antonia's and mine) easier...well, maybe not easier...but it makes it much more fluid and it also expedites it more for the collective as more and more come on board. So doing the Clearing of "Fear and Entities" is very powerful.

F Now when we are getting back into the monetary aspect of it...if we look at the nuts and bolts...if we go right to the basics here...money is a construct, is a role in a game that has been put in and it has many, many, many layers of interconnections in it that go right back to self-worth, the fact that we need to do something to get something, there's a survival aspect, of course there's a competition mode, and all the other aspects of it. As well, of course, there's the idea that we need to have something to sustain us because the planet will not sustain us, others will not sustain us, that we are separate, and all that stuff. These are all interconnected into this monetary game and rules that were put in place.

F Now, to understand the very basics of that is that it was made up when we were playing in that frequency of having that experience. We are now moving out of that. We actually moved out of it quite some time ago.

F And what has kept it in place, again, is...and there are two lures here. One is fear in that if we don't have it we are not going to maintain a certain sustainability within the planet itself...meaning we are not going to do things if it's not there and how are we going to get to move forward if this does not apply. The second component that is still connected to that is that if the money is not there that we will not survive, that we will not have the basic necessities that we have. And that has been put into place.

F But the other component is the fear aspect of it. And when we are talking about the fear that has been projected over and over again is that we have to do and have to accumulate and have to have this stuff for our own sense of security, self-worth, and, at the same time, have all of this support our journey...because, "this is the way it is." And that is playing a part in this also.

F Now, yes, the monetary system has been made up, specifically the debt system has been set up in such a fashion that it is not something that can be corrected in the sequence that it's been established. That means that the way that it's been set up is that it cannot get to a point where you can become debt-free unless you surrender something tangible...meaning property, ownership of any sort, or part of ourselves. But it's been set up that way. And it actually played a (serving) role in the duality/polarity aspect of things before.

F Now many, many people are awakening and realizing that this is no longer of servitude and we no longer need to play this game. And we can also see the limitations that have been created. The limitations have always been there and people have always observed...because when there is no money then we are restricted, we are in a prison, in a sense, because, first, we are not going to be able to survive; second, we are not going to have the life that we might want to live or experience freedom where we can choose to do whatever we want to do. So those components have always been there to keep us restricted.

F But now we have become much more aware to see clearly not only how the role has been played and how limiting it has been, but also to get a better idea that we don't really need to adhere to this type of rule or game that we have played thus far.

F So, in saying all of that, where do we go from here?

F Well, the first thing we need to do is to realize that money is made up.

F Secondly, we need to realize that it is only a game that can change instantly and that has no real power over us unless we give it power and fear.

F Now, yes, we can turn around and say, "Well, if I don't have money, I'm not going to be able to go to the grocery store!" True. At this point in time everybody is still trying to hold onto that old modality because we are not so familiar with the modality that does not have that component in place...i.e. the money aspect of it.

F So, "OK, how do we shift from one state to the next?" We are talking about a state where we have to have money in order to have our basic essentials for us to survive on the planet per se to another which does not have that component in it at all. Where everyone has exactly what they need...and when I say "need"... need to sustain their journey, their path, whatever that may be...not that, "I need this toy, or that toy," or whatever it is...now I'm not saying that that needs to be lack in it. But in that aspect where we will have everything we need.

F Now, how do we go from one level or one world to the next world?

F Well, in actual fact, it's very simple...as long as we're ready to look at the process that we've established and start to take down those components.

F Now there are people like (those on this call) who are looking at the monetary systems and so forth and are bringing that sovereignty back and making us be in a free state. Because, in actual fact, of everything that is around us, everything is available to us...we have only created these restraints.

F So once we come to an agreement and say, "We don't need to play with these constraints," then we can turn around and, as a stepping stone, make availability for everyone to have a certain amount in order to make that transitional point as we go from a monetary system to a non-monetary system...which is going to take some time because, again, people are still holding onto it. But things are speeding up in such a fashion that more and more people are realizing that, "Do we really need this?" and are able to now see the restriction.

F Now, part of it has to be maintained because there are still 3-D people who need to go through their awakening process to either shift from the 3rd and then leave and further on from that, so it is going to still play a certain part.

F So, for the individuals who are dealing with it, first and foremost is to see how much power we have given it...personally, I'm talking about. I know that on a collective scale that there's been a lot of power given to it. But even the game that they're playing....

F For example, when we look at it, right now we have this massive amount of debt, everybody's accumulating...at all levels...governmental, a lot of the different corporations, institutions, personally, credit cards...you name it. All this debt has been created. Now, if you're looking at it and saying, "Well how do we turn all that around? How do we actually get out of debt?"

F Well, if you look at it from the point of view, "We don't need to have the debt anymore," we can just wipe it out!

F Because all of it is on digital computers accounting that someone owes this much, someone owes that much, and so forth, and then there's all this interest accumulated which has no monetary allocation for it to even be "cleared" in the first place.

F So it can be cleared very easily! That can change very quickly! It's just a matter of getting to the point where we collectively say, "This is what we're going to do and we're not going to continue with all these restrictions that we had before."

F So this is possible. It will occur at some point in time. It's just how quickly we can get to it.

F So, on a personal level, first of all we need to take out of the way the power that we have given to money. And the first part of it is fear...again, it's always the same thing: fear. "If I don't have it, I can't survive!" and so forth.

F The other component that feeds fear is always seeing ourselves separate from one another...meaning that, "I'm an island," in a sense. "I am here, by myself, and nobody really cares and how am I going to do it?" Well, that's another component that needs to shift also.

F And this is something that we will see as more and more groups and more and more people are coming together...they are coming into the sharing aspect of it. So each person will contribute to the group or the community or whatever it is, so that everybody has accessibility to what they need at that point in time.

F Do we have to go back to a situation where we are all living together in a commune and we are all sharing? That may be a stepping stone, but eventually even that will dissolve in the sense of that being a necessity...meaning that we will be in a community, we will support each other...but the community will be global...it won't be just small pockets of communities.

F The original part of it may become smaller groups...maybe in the family dynamic at first...from the family dynamic, it will bring in neighbors, will bring in friends, and the community will expand from that. But eventually it's going to be a global community. So it's not even just Canada, the U.S., Europe or whatever....because that will be the next stepping stone...but eventually it will be the whole world.

F So when that becomes manifest, then everyone will support each other. It will not be just wars and who wants to control what or anything of that nature. That's all unfolding along the way...as much as it may not seem that way...because we are still having a lot of the polarity stuff burning off, clearing up a lot of the old energies coming up to the surface.

F So, on a personal level, it is to go beyond that fear component.

F And then be open to no longer... Because when we see ourselves without it, it becomes an obstacle for many people...and this is still part of the learning process. If we can't "do it on our own," then we are "failures." And this is very powerful for many people because it has been ingrained from the day we were born...from our parents, from our states and ways of understanding, but it's also through the educational system, through the media, through all the different components. "You know, if I can't provide for myself, then I'm a failure!" So that becomes an obstacle which we need to let go of.

F Because the thing is, there is no "failure" in that aspect of it. That is an old game. You know, the fact that we're not choosing to play the game we had before doesn't mean we "failed;" it means that we are just choosing to no longer play that game. Because that game took a lot of our energy, a lot of our time, a lot of our freedom to play within that game. So now that we are no longer in that state, we are choosing to no longer play within that game.

F So, have we failed? No! We came to a new realization that that is no longer something that we want to cooperate with, experience, and to continue to play with...period. So we are choosing to go beyond that.

F So if that comes up...seeing ourselves as failures...in connecting with other people...You know, when you are connecting with other people, you're not going in with from the aspect of, "I need help." You're going in from the aspect of, "Listen, I'm experiencing (whatever) and let's look at some way that we can start to free ourselves and where we can start supporting each other."

F Now once this starts to occur more and more...which it is...and it will exponentially expand from there...you will notice that more and more people will easily flow into coming together, working together, sharing together. And even the thing about "exchange" and all that stuff will eventually fade away because that's still part of the old paradigm of monetary/separation...."I need to do this and you need to do that," and all this part of it starts to change.

F So the first thing is to get rid of the fear of having it or not having it.

F The second thing is guiding us through the aspect of, "If I don't have it then if I can't sustain myself," or, "I've failed," or, "I'm going to be suffering," or anything of that nature.

F So those are the big components in that aspect of it.

F Now, of course, for many, we still have to play with the game of having to do something for which we get compensated on a monetary level, and some may need to still play with that...I say "some" but it is more than some at this point. But, in actual fact, you will guide yourself to whatever you are doing, whatever endeavor you may have or not have in what we could call "work," at that point in time is to take the power away from the definition that we given to it....seeing it as, "This is something I hate," "This is something that I need to do because of survival," and so forth.

F And shift your thoughts about it to where you see it as providing a service.

F No matter where you are, you also make a difference with the people that you interact with.

F And we've talked about this before...but to also be OK with whatever you are going to do temporarily but, at the same time, look at the direction of your life and so forth so that you can make adjustments within it so you are not maintaining such a heavy reliance on having the monetary aspect.

F Now, the other upside of all of this...and this is a huge shift that's occurring...is that in the governmental level, the financial level, there is a lot of stuff coming up because the energies, the consciousness of humanity, the choices that people are making, the realizations that people have come to where they see the monetary being manipulated and constructed in such a way where there is no "getting out it," in a sense...that people are taking action, together, on a larger and larger scale...all over the world...to reform...reform the financial systems and so forth.

F So part of the reforming is, yes, to get rid of a lot of the debt, to allow for better distribution...also to not have the same amount of restrictions and control by certain smaller groups that have dictated...and so forth. So that is going to change...there's going to be a re-distribution. And a lot of stuff will come into play as we are going along.

F But at this point we need to work through our own personal stuff and then coming together and doing whatever we feel we want to cooperate with in the larger scale of doing.

F But, again, it's not about fear or fighting.

F Now these, again, are merely stepping stones because all of these things that are coming into play are things that people have put together. Some people have been putting things together for quite a while now...10 or 15 years...different organizations, different policies and so forth where certain things will play out. You have to understand, part of it may come into play, part of it may not, part of it has been created with a different state of consciousness, with a different frequency, with a different way of seeing things at that point in time. So just because some things may come out and others will not...again, whatever does come out...all of it will become a stepping stone.

F Because eventually all of it will be upgraded...and eventually dissolved...completely! But that's going to be a little while down the road for that to happen.

F So the monetary thing has a very large component of fear. And so the first and foremost is to deal with the fear aspect, and then see the money aspect for what it is: a game, a part of a rule, and a limitation that we put into place.

F And then let's see how we can play the game in such a fashion that we're not caught up in it, we are not enslaved by it, we are not restricted by it, but rather are able to maneuver through it. But, at the same time, loosen the ties to it.

F And also to be "open" to change. Because there are more and more changes coming through in that regard.

F And you, too, Antonia, you've seen some of the things that other people and organizations are putting together. Now I'm not saying that all of the organizations are doing it in the most efficient way...and yes, we have a very archaic system still in place that holds very tightly to the existing system. But, the thing is, as this is going on, it's creating an expansion of consciousness for the people in the justice system, in the legal system, at the different governmental levels, and so forth. So there is an educational process that's going on...but, really, it's a consciousness that is shifting there. So that all will facilitate a lot of these changes.

F But on a personal level, you have to deal with all types of fears and all the different belief systems and programs that come up regarding money...so that money is a very neutral state...it's a tool.

F It has to return back to a tool that we are utilizing for only a temporary purpose at this very moment, and to be ready for it to dissolve at any point in time or to take on a different form for a period of time until our True Nature steps in.

F And our True Nature is where there is no monetary system, there is no restriction...everybody has access to everything and nobody owns anything...everything is shared and we get into a place where we are completely free.

F A place where we can actually be ourselves 100% without getting caught up in the fact that, "I need to struggle for the next 40, 50, 60 years (or whatever time), and I have to come up with the best scheme so that I can have a certain amount of money in the bank before I can actually start to live life the way I want to."

F And also to go beyond the belief system that, "life is a certain way." For example, our designed life should have all these little gadgets and all these little attachments to possessions and so forth in order for us to feel good or to feel secure or to feel worthy or anything of that nature.

F So all of these things need to be adjusted as we go along.

F There's more to talk about, but I would like to address as many other questions as possible in the time we have today. Do you have anything to add, Antonia?

A Yes. We've had a lot of questions asking about this website or that website because there's a lot of information (about these new systems) out there.

A So just remember that whenever we have a question about what person to follow or what advice to follow...you know, ultimately, I would recommend to first do the Clearing on "Fear & Entities". List to that, do some clearing and then see what resonates and go forward that way.

A Because there will be more and more information coming up. There will be more and more in the mass consciousness...people talking about it more openly...and that's a great sign because it just shows how we are moving through things.

A However, right now, we have a lot more questions, so let's move along from that topic now but we might address more on that at a later time.

A So our next question is, "Can you give any specific dates after the big changes that will occur in the new era, such as the end of money, the end of jobs and obligations, etc.?"

A I think we touched on that before, but do you want to add anything more to that, Franco?

F Well, there is no specific dates. At the soul level, at the universal level, our galactic friends...altogether...because we are connected...would like to see this transition occur as quickly as possible.

F But it really depends on us because we are still learning from this process, we are still expanding. And we've stepped into something that's very powerfully accelerated right now for us to go to more quickly through it and there's more people awakening. So basically it's how quickly the ratios of 3-D versus 4-D and 5-D come into play...meaning...

F Because whenever you're going into a 4th and 5th Dimensional consciousness, this monetary system is not powerful.

F Now, to give you just a quick little timeline: by the end of 2014 the power given to money will greatly transform in the sense that it will no longer have the same amount of powers. It will still be used, but there will be a much more fluid state, it's not going to be controlled and restricted and dominated by certain elite groups and so forth. But it's still going to be used because it's still part of a transition.

F By the time we get into 2017 it will be even looser and freer and we will have come to a clearer understanding. It will still be used to a certain degree but, again, it will be even much more limited in its power that it has over us and how we utilize it.

F We are basically looking, at this point in time, at the whole monetary thing completely not being in place until...there will be a huge reduction and, again, we're not even going to have money at a certain point in time...but rather a monitoring of accountability until humanity becomes more self-accountable to a much more equal sharing. But that will most likely not be until 2020.

F And then by 2030 you are looking in the history books for the monetary system because it will no longer exist whatsoever and will not have been used for a while.

F These, again, are just the existing timelines that we are seeing at this time. Timelines do change. As the ratio of humanity awakening shifts and gets larger and the ones who choose to no longer be on the planet because they have completed what they needed to complete and they leave the planet, then the ratios of the frequencies will change, things will shift even much further and we will take much larger leaps.

F And even when we are looking at a challenge of letting go of something and bringing something else new in, it won't be a huge debate, a huge structure or anything of that nature. It will be looked at and we will say, "OK, great. We can shift this thing. Let's do it! Let's put it together."

F The other thing is that, along the way, the need for jobs and so forth will be looked at much more specifically after this year...in fact, it's already being looked at now...the thing is to start using a lot more technology and to eliminate a lot of the things that we have in place right now.

F Once we realize that most of what we have present at this time as goods and services are really not of true value, of true usefulness. A lot of it, again, has been playing the role of “make work projects” because of the fact that we needed to have this old game that we’ve been supporting that everybody has to earn, everybody has to work, and we have to have a certain economy to keep things going. This is an old modality that has created separation and so forth...which is part of the experience but is no longer necessary.

F So we are going to allow a lot of new technology to come in, we are going to start looking at the fact that we do not need marketing, we do not need all of the stuff in place where we need to generate needs and generate wants, we need to identify with stuff or something of that nature...and to create all these industries on top of industries and institutions on top of institutions.

F And then also as the consciousness starts to shift and we become conscious of more and more Oneness...because Oneness has been activated and is becoming much more powerful...as we become more and more of Oneness, we also start to realize that we don’t need a separate identity with all this stuff, but instead we just share it...everything is just fluid.

F And you will notice a lot of the requirements of getting up every morning and going to work and “sacrificing” and having one or two or three jobs and having all of these needs to have food, to have energy and all this stuff...will greatly shift and dissolve completely.

F Because we do have the technology...and we’ve had it for a very long time...to provide everything that we absolutely need with very little effort on the physical aspect by each of us enslaving ourselves.

F But there’s still going to be things that we need to do...“work,” if you want to call it that...but it will be much more evenly distributed.

F But this will occur as a result of the work (i.e. the clearing) that we are each doing individually and collectively.

F That is what will govern the timeline and how quickly we make those changes.

F All the things that are playing out right now are really giving us the environment to wrap up and clear up and let go of any unfinished business, any unfinished lessons that we need to experience so that we can continue moving forward. The playground has to be maintained a little longer...

F For example, even with the thing about fear...the moment that we are done with the fear of money, you will notice that things will flow a lot easier. It may not be all of a sudden you have $1 million in your bank account or something of that nature, but your needs will be reduced so that you don't need as much but, at the same time, whatever you do need will flow or something will come about. Or even the work that you are doing will support you. But eventually all of that will transition and dissolve.

F So that's kind of a basic timeline of what we're looking at.

F But it really is up to us. And that's why it's so key to do what we're doing together.

F The bulk of the work right now...the sharing, the expansion of consciousness...is within the next four years, that is 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016.

F Because by the time we get into 2017 we will be in the state of consciousness where it is much more consistent and wide-spread...meaning that everybody is on the same page in the sense of awareness by December 2017. At that point in time, we will be working more as a unified group to really start looking at the nuts and bolts of everything that's in place in a much more fluid, efficient way so that we can start making really huge changes. And there's not going to be that polarity, that resistance, in place as we have right now.

F Right now we have the old world and the new world. The new world is coming in and the old world is hanging on for dear life. And many people are holding onto that old world because that is what we're familiar with. But as we go through the intensities and experiences and the holding onto that old world becomes more and more difficult, you will see how quickly the new world will step in.

A Absolutely. And that's the importance, for now, of the Clearing "Fear & Entities." Because as we all individually clear out all these fears within ourselves, we raise the vibration within ourselves and we will affect so many others. So that is why we are asking you to assist us, to assist humanity, in going through the shift. Because as you continue to do the clearing and as you pass it on to other people...and I would please encourage you to do this...what you will find is that it just accelerates this.

A Because what fear really is is an agreement that we agreed to, to create separation...about 10,000 years ago. And that was fine. That was what we had agreed to. But that agreement has ended.

A However, it has lingered because we have gotten used to having it around. It's kind of like the old saying, "Better the devil that you know than the one that you don't," meaning that if you have pain, you'd rather deal with the pain you have rather than have something new. And that's kind of what's around the fear. Because we, as a consciousness, have been so used to having it around. And even sometimes when people initially become liberated from the fear, they become almost uncomfortable and almost kind of empty because they've been used to carrying this weight for so long and now they can't figure out what to do or how to function without it. Now that may sound weird, but it's just an adjustment.

A So the more people who actively participate in doing the clearing for themselves, then what you are doing is you are assisting in the consciousness shift and that will echo out and assist in all that we are passing through to take place faster.

A Because once fear is released, then everything else changes! Everything else completely changes!

A So next move onto the next question. "Please explain what it means to be 'at peace' from the 3-D, 4-D and 5-D perspective."

F Each level is different in the sense that...in the 3-D world when we are at peace, it's observed that we're OK with whatever's happening, in the sense that we are no longer driven by fear...being one of the major components...because that's one of the biggest things that takes us out of a state of peace. So, in the 3-D world peace is a level of acceptance...accepting things are they are...and being OK with it...and also not reacting in the same fashion as before.

F In 4-D, a state of peace is a much more fluid energy. It is more bound coming through a knowing...a knowing, a flowing, and seeing a perfection in all that's playing out in the sense that we are, at this point in time...whatever's playing out, it's not about "acceptance" any longer, it's seeing a perfection in it and then utilizing it to play and learn and experience and clear up whatever's necessary in the 4th Dimensional consciousness where the pieces are a much more natural expression coming through.

F When we step into a 5th Dimensional consciousness, peace is your Essence. It is an Essence coming through you and, really, at this point in time, there's not even a mind aspect of it where you need to justify what is peaceful or not peaceful. You're living it, you're in it...you're in that state of peace...you're flowing with everything. And everything is...there's a consciousness of self-observation, self-learning from it, and you're flowing with everything. So you're no longer in a polarized world at all, in the 5th Dimensional consciousness with peace. And through that peace you create a very powerful connection.

F Because this is the thing...and this is something you talked about earlier, Antonia, was for us to have a connection... Because people a lot of times they ask, "How do we have a connection to a Higher Aspect or our Higher Self?" Because sometimes there's a trust issue and so forth. But a lot of it has to do with fear. It is a fear-based issue where we can't connect. So when you get rid of the fear you can connect much more. So in the 5th Dimensional consciousness, the state of peace is that you're connected with your Higher Self and you are coming to...not even a realization...you are living your True Essence...which is peace.

F Your natural state is peace. Peace is seeing yourself as Source having a human experience which has no limitations whatsoever, where you can maneuver, shape and create your environment, play with whatever presents with you, whatever other brother/sister souls that come along that are playing with us, we are playing with them in a state of peace. And competition, struggle, survival, fear, or anything of that nature are not components that are utilized at all. Actually, in the 5th Dimensional consciousness, they don't even seem real. It's like, "What is that?"

F So you can see the different steps. The 3rd is more physical and active, but by the time we get to the 5th Dimensional consciousness it's our natural state. Peace is flowing and we're playing with it. It becomes our natural state...even though it's our natural state now, to us it's foreign...it's foreign to many people in the 3rd Dimensional consciousness. It's still somewhat foreign in the 4th Dimensional consciousness. But in the 5th Dimensional consciousness, peace is no longer foreign. All the other stuff becomes foreign, becomes something that does not resonate.

F So, to step back quickly, when we are in a state of peace, when we are no longer driven by fear, and we hear information about looking for resources...even about what we were talking about tonight (like looking for information on freedom-from-debt websites), when the fear is not there and there is a state of peace, when we listen to information that's coming to us, that's when you can resonate or not resonate with it.

F Now if it is resonating with us, it could be that it is because it's perfectly in tune with that moment and is exactly what you need to hear and experience. Now that resonance may change at some point because it no longer serves because you've superseded that particular experience and something else will resonate. So that means that just because you resonate now and don't resonate later doesn't mean that it was the wrong thing. It resonated at that point in time because that's what you needed at that time.

F So when you are in a state of peace in a 5th Dimensional consciousness, you will fully realize what serves and doesn't serve very naturally, very clearly, and you will be able to navigate. Because everyone here gets to navigate through their own journey. So that higher connection within our self is first and foremost getting rid of the fear, going into a state of peace, and then, of course, utilizing your own guidance system within yourself.

A Yes. Thank you for that.

A Now we also got quite a few questions in about how the new energies here are affecting climate here and around the world, specifically in terms of the poles. There's been a lot of questions about the poles shifting...

A So we've answered that before and I know that contrary to a lot of other people out there talking about the poles shifting, the poles will not shift. That was an old different timeline that we are no longer on. I know that a lot of other sites and channelers out there talk about a polar shift before we hit the 5th Dimension, but that is not going to be the case.

A And I know that, especially here in Toronto where we had a temperature of 14 degrees Celsius recently at a time of year when it should be really cold, you might want to question whether the poles have already shifted! (laughs) But they're not.

A So, Franco, do you want to just quickly touch on some environmental/climate changes and, for example, the pole shift?

F The biggest talk before was the poles flipping. That's not going to occur, like you were saying. That was a different timeline, along with the Armageddon, along with all the different projections, prophecies, and so forth...were all different timelines. None of these things are necessary any longer. So we are not going to be experiencing anything of that degree.

F Now, is the pole shifting? Yes, it is...in the sense that it has been shifting for a while...it is just moving and relocating itself in a different position...slightly. So we're looking at about a 23 degree shift from the original position...over a period of time...because it's already started.

A Yes, and let's just clarify that that shift is a gradual one which is happening with the Earth anyway. When people talk about the poles shifting, they talk about the North and South shifting and causing massive havoc and everything falling apart. But that aspect of the pole shifting...no, that was an old timeline. What we are talking about here is a slight shifting that has always been taking place since the Earth was created. It's like a natural progression of the Earth evolving into the next stage, over a very long time.

F Yes, exactly. And the thing is, it's moving a little quicker, but it's going to achieve the position that it chooses at this time to create the alignment that is necessary for the advancement as we are moving forward.

F What was referred to as the poles shifting would have created a re-set on the planet and would have extinguished a lot of humanity and so forth. But with our consciousness shift and everything that has been done behind the scenes, we (and when I say "we," I'm talking about not only the souls on the planet here but also the souls that we are connected with on other planets) didn't see that as something that would have been advantageous any longer, so it was all shifted from that.

F So we are not here to get caught up in the fear.

F There are still a lot of modalities being talked about and a lot of predictions have been made that have not occurred because of the fact that these were projections that were made at that time about certain timelines.

F It also becomes an issue when we're channeling or tuning into different states of consciousness because a lot of times we are tuning into something that's coming from a different timeline...which we are not on and which is not even a probability any longer. So the information may be coming from beings or a different state of consciousness from somewhere else and then, of course, you take it as "gospel" as the way it's going to play out. This becomes an issue because...well, I say "issue" but it's really not an issue because it's still an opportunity from which to learn and to go back into and see what resonates and what doesn't resonate. So when this information is coming in, we always need to check within yourself, "Does this resonate?"

F You have to understand, anything that brings up fear most likely is not current. Because we are no longer in a state of consciousness that requires fear.

F So if it's fear related and it's talking about a lot of doom and gloom and so forth, again, it's not coming from the highest state of consciousness...because in our highest state of consciousness, this does not serve and actually restricts and reduces the movement forward. So if we get caught up in it, then experience it and clear it.

F Because when you are in that non-fear state...when you are in the clear state, you can feel that, "Yes, this resonates," or "No, this doesn't resonate."

F And even if it does resonate, only what will benefit the collective will unfold anyway...and individually too. So should any changes be required in certain pockets of the country (or whatever it is) and we need to be involved in a certain way and have a certain experience, then we're going to be involved with it. And if we don't need that experience then we won't be involved...something will change and we'll go somewhere else. Things are going to flow in that respect.

F So, regarding the polar shifts, it's a gradual shift, it has accentuated itself, and it's going to find its new positioning. But that's just creating a new alignment to sustain the new frequencies and accentuate the consciousness that shifting. It's not about destruction and so forth.

F Now, will there be climate changes? Yes, there will be. And, at this point in time with the present timelines, the melting of the polar caps and so forth (will occur) but, again, that's releasing old energies, old CO2 and so forth. But that is only part and parcel of the migration and shifting of the planet itself...because it is shifting its consciousness and it's aligning itself with the new frequencies, the new state of consciousness of our galaxy and our universe. And, again, it's all to sustain and to create a new world playground for us.

F So everything is being upgraded. You have to look at it as an upgrade.

F It's not about destroying and compromise and so forth. Once upon a time, we were in a position to do that, but we have not been in that position for a while now. And anything that is still playing out is really just being held in place because of fear, because of the fact that we are still sharing with one another that this is going to happen, that's going to happen, and so forth,

F I know a lot of people were disappointed when we did not have a major catastrophe around December 21, 2012, because there was a lot of expectations around that. Again, it all depends on what is for the highest good.

F And there is a lot of fear-based stuff that may still come up...but it will only be enough to create change and not enough to create a setback.

F And this is the thing...because fear can create a huge setback. Imagine something major...for example, monetary crash...which will occur but will not occur in a form which will create a total disaster...because if it creates a huge massive amount of fear then it's only going to be a set-back instead of a movement forward. A certain amount of fear can be beneficial, but only while we're clearing the rest of it. And that doesn't necessarily mean on a personal level, but on a global level.

F Sometimes fear has to be accentuated before we can clear it, but we're not going to create enough fear to create a set-back.

A Absolutely. Thank you for that, Franco.

A Our next question is, "I'm having a problem connecting to Source all the time like I desire. So will these new energies help in any way to make this reality for me?"

A First of all, you are always connected to Source.

A When you say you have difficulty connecting to Source, you're still looking at it like Source is something outside of you or different than you...when actually there is no difference.

A But, Franco can we talk about that a bit more?

F Yes, and thank you for clearing up that point because you're right: we are always connected to Source because we are in essence, a strand, a fragment, an accentuation, an expression of Source itself. So the Essence of Source is within us at all times...it cannot be without! We are a projection of Source consciousness. Of course, Source is projecting at different frequencies and so forth so it can have a multitude of different experiences.

F We do have terminology about Source and, a lot of times, what we are doing is we're looking for answers. And we're looking for answers so that we can take steps forward and it has to be in such a fashion that we need to be clear so that we don't have any experiences that we may "not desire" at a mind level. But the point is we are always connected. And any steps that we are going to take forward, we tune into our own Higher Self which is within ourself...and at times we connect to Higher aspects of ourselves too. But when we're going into it asking, "Well what is the best servitude in this instance?" And sometimes the best servitude is to go through some challenges that may be a little rough because that's the only way we are going to clear something that has been ingrained within ourself or to be able to give us the opportunity to wrap something up.

F So we may look at that and interpret it as, "I did not get guided! Why did I have to go down the same path again and get bumps and bruises and have all these experiences that I have so long desired to no longer have because I wanted to move on?" Well that was what was necessary at that point in time. Was that intervention and assistance from your Higher Self? Absolutely.

F You have to understand...your Soul is here to purge and clear and also to learn and wrap up everything. So it's here to experience, it's here to learn, it's here to further enlighten. And to further enlighten requires certain experiences at this point in time which may take all different types of form. It doesn't mean that we are not guided by our Inner Self because a lot of times the challenges that come in are perfectly constructed for us. Even when we think it's not constructed, it's still constructed. Because if we're going to have something intense in our life, it's because somehow it's still playing a very powerful role and that's the tool that it requires to move forward.

F So getting rid of fear, first and foremost...and quieting the mind and not giving so much power to the stories that the mind is creating will allow us to be better able to listen to our inner guidance. Now when the inner guidance is coming, sometimes it will lead you down a path that will not make any sense to you, saying, "Wait a minute! If I have getting higher guidance, why am I in this scenario at this time?" Well, the question is, "How does this scenario actually serve?" That is the true question we need to ask ourselves, rather than, "Why did I not get the guidance?"

F Because, remember, you are here to experience, learn and become enlightened and this experience may be something that is absolutely necessary...which your Higher Self has allowed you to have. Because, again, your Higher Self has the intention for you to move forward. In order to move forward you need to purge and clear. To move forward you need to wrap up all the unfinished work.

F And sometimes there are people who have taken on responsibilities...and I don't like to use the word "responsibilities"...but taken on the task to clear stuff from the family dynamics, from cultural dynamics, where they have taken in dynamics in from a human perspective in a large collective...but also some stuff from past lives. So does that mean we are a bigger "mess" or have a bigger job to do? No. It's just that we were more ready to take that on. So you're going to go through it, so just experience what you need to experience and allow it to just flow through you because it's still assisting the collective and yourself personally.

F So that's basically the connection with Higher Self. We have a lot of definitions and interpretations of what it should look like and a lot of times we interpret our situation as our not being connected. In actual fact, we are connected.

F There are so many times that we feel like we are "all alone." And when we are "all alone" that is when we are not at all...in fact, that is when we have the strongest connection because that feeling is actually accentuating something that we need to get clear and move forward from. So that alone feeling is only projected there to assist us...coming from the truest, highest sense of our Self.

A Thank you.

A Our next question is, "Can you talk about smoking nicotine? Is it an entity? I really want to shake it off."

F Well, nicotine is a pocket of consciousness, that's for sure. When we talk about nicotine, it has a certain vibration and it's been constructed in such a fashion so that it keeps us addicted. And when we are addicted, it accentuates self-slavery to it and, in actual fact, it takes away the potentiality of feeling ourselves free. So that's the power that it has. Now it's been put in cigarettes because it's not naturally occurring...not to that degree...it's been created to enslave us to continue to utilize it. Because the cigarettes and what they contain and how they are being projected as the consciousness behind it is actually a lowering of frequency. The same thing with alcohol and other substances that are being used, like food additives and so forth.

F Is it really an entity? I wouldn't say it's an entity. It does carry a certain form of identity in the sense that we identify with it as being a smoker or such and such, but it's actually a consciousness that keeps us enslaved and it's a lower-vibrating consciousness.

F So the first thing to do with the cigarette is to be with the connection that you have with it. So whenever you are smoking, don't see it as a demon, don't see it as something horrible, but see it as something that you're experiencing. But when you're smoking, really get in touch with it...on an intimate level...as to how it feels within your body. And then keep checking with your body, "Do I need to keep playing with this? Do I need to continue to do this?" And if your body is saying, "No," then in order to allow it to go, then say, "OK, then how do I clear this? How do I let go of my dependency on it?"

F Nicotine was designed to create an addiction. But this is a 3rd Dimensional consciousness program that had been played out. So as you are going through the process of shifting, you will notice that will have less and less power. But if you fall back to the other components of it and have an intimate connection with the cigarette and all of what it does for you, then you can actually utilize your own physical experience, your own physicality, to determine what you need and don't need.

F Because you can break that habit very easily once you do not see it as a demon any longer and you no longer see it as something that has power over you. Because nicotine will have no addictive properties to you if you are not connected to 3rd Dimensional consciousness. Does that mean that you are going to smoke? No. Because at that point in time the energy that it emits is not something that is conducive to your physical form and your state of consciousness, so you're not going to be drawn to it and you can just let it go. And it will become very natural and easy to let go, too, when you're in that state.

F In a way it's not an entity, but it does carry an entity, yes...but it is also a pocket of consciousness...and a consciousness which is of a lower frequency. So to utilize it to transform from it is to create a connection to it and then allow ourselves to navigate from it.

A Yes. And keep doing the Clearing on "Fear and Entities." Because then you can go back to the initial moment when you needed the cigarette to hide a fear...whatever the fear-based belief was. So as you keep doing the Clearing that will keep lightening that up within yourself.

A One of the Clearings that we will be doing most likely in February 2013 will be one to assist all to...for lack of a better word, let's say "detoxify" or "release" a lot of, let's say, "pollutants" that have been purposely put into humanity to keep awareness down. And they all carry codes, they all carry frequencies. And, as you awaken, you become more sensitive and you realize more...you realize that they're in food, they're in the air, they're in vaccines, they're in medications, in electronic equipment...So one of the upcoming Clearings will be to assist in clearing that type of thing.

A But, as a foundation to that, the more you can do the clearing on releasing "Fear and Entities," that that in itself will greatly, greatly, greatly assist.

F Because our whole world right now...because fear is being accentuated on many levels...and there are more and more people stepping out of it to some degree...but the whole thing about terrorists, about lack, or this or that...it's all fear based...in the media, in all the different movies. Look at it now, a lot of the movies and shows now are about alien invasions and about all different types of things because they're trying to find new ways to create fear. So even the fact that we are going to be meeting our brother/sister souls from other planets and which is something which will happen in the near future (but which will not happen as it is being projected in the movies), the control structure sees that coming and so they are projecting fear around it.

F And with respect to the upcoming Clearing, we are going to be modifying the codes so that we are not affected by all the different encodements that are out there. Because all of that is still back in the fear. So we are going to clear a lot of that and that will make it a lot easier for people to move forward.

F And, again, collectively as we move forward we change our playground and our state of being here on the planet so that we can align more quickly, more efficiently and be able to live that true creation that we initialized from the beginning to experience on this planet.

A Our next question is, "I assume that the new energies are prompting us to connect with our own Divine Consciousness or Higher Self consciousness and not the 'guru' mentality of the past. Is this correct?"

F Yes. Absolutely. Because we're all One and we're all achieving different levels of consciousness, when things are being shared there are going to be things that someone may come to a realization and share...so as it's being shared we take in what serves us and what resonates with us. But, again, the dependency of having a guru or the dependency that someone else is going to do your thinking for you and give you direction or give you all the answers and so forth...that modality is no longer part of our journey.

F It is now self-governance, self-direction and using our Inner Guidance. And our Inner Guidance is specifically designed for our specific experience.

F Because a lot of times when we are getting information from others, it is coming from their experiential realm in most cases and through their journey...but that doesn't mean it aligns with our journey.

F Plus, the other thing is, unless the information is upgraded constantly...and this is one of the key things with the work that we are doing (Antonia and I), everything that we are doing is constantly being upgraded and we are not going to hold onto any older information. So information will continue to evolve...as the collective evolves, as our galaxy and universe evolve at the same time and all of our brothers and sisters are evolving.

F But the point is, the information which is being shared by so-called gurus (or whatever it is) may be from their own experience, may be from a realization from an observation they made at a point when the frequency was different and was interpreted from the whatever their consciousness was at that time. But that needs to constantly always evolve.

F So the point is to utilize some of the information but utilize only with what resonates with you and still do not attach to it because that is still constantly changing. So you may need it at that moment, but you then need to move forward from that.

F The key here, like I said, is to use your own Inner Guidance because that is constantly modifying to suit your own specific journey that is unfolding.

A And the thing is with the work that Franco and I do and all the programs that we do, sometimes we repeat answers that those who have been listening to us for a while will remember. But we do not ever do the same event over and over like a lot of people do...and I'm not pointing fingers or saying that's wrong or anything...but I'm just pointing out that Franco and I made a commitment to pass on only the latest information that can assist all. We could have made it really easy for ourselves by putting together just one program and just copying that program all over the world. But that's not what we're about. So the information that we do pass on is only the most current. And you'll notice that we never give hard timelines or predictions about anything because we know that there is a constant flow. And the more that humanity moves forward and releases fear, then the more and more that's possible.

A Now we have another great question as follows.

A "I've just become a little clearer on what I feel inside. Is it possible that a soul has come here to progress to only a certain point and actually knowing it? I've tried so many, many things to get past my 'stuff' but it seems to take me to a certain point and then 50 million new things come up and I find that actually all I have is an awareness that nothing is letting go. I'm so confused! I've tried every 'letting go' process out there it seems. Is this a lost cause or how do I find a way to really move with the new energies?"

A And I'll bet that a lot of people feel that way. That they've tried everything but all this stuff just keeps coming up all the time. So that's a great, great question...especially right now heading into the month of February 2013, a lot of people will feel exactly like that.

A So, Franco, let's go into that one.

F Well, the souls when they come here want to make as much progress as possible. It comes in with a list of things that it wants to achieve during this period of time that it's here. Of course we are still dictating how long we are going to stay on the planet at any point in time...and it is fluid, so that means that we can change it along the way. So even if we thought we were going to come here for only 30 years and do only 12 things on my list here, because the energies are conducive and things are changing, you can extend it further.

F It may seem like there's a lot of work to be done or that, "I'm only going to be here this long and do this much," but, in actual fact, it is fluid. So there is no rigidity about, "I'm only going to be here for a period of time and only here to do only this."

F Now, you have to understand with the clearing process, first and foremost a lot of people have the energy that we carry that, "I need to clear everything possible so that my life can be 'better'" Life is not about being "better." Life is about living in whatever form that we create at each moment, because each moment is creating a beautiful expansive state of consciousness within ourselves...which may, at times, take forms that are less conducive in the form of saying, "Well, it's going to be light, and we're going to play with this," and so forth. So that is a big obstacle and we need to let go of that. But again, it's not about, "I need to let go because I need to achieve this particular life."

F The thing is to navigate through the process of letting go in a very easy manner. Not in the sense of, "I have to do all of this and then I will have arrived." It's not about "arriving" anywhere. We're on a journey and each moment is an adventurous aspect of the journey. And each moment is achieving a new level of consciousness, a new state of enlightenment within ourselves...and it is also wrapping up where we're going.

F So all of it is in perfection throughout the process. So for us to create a deadline or to create expectations about certain things is only going to make another project for us to do to clear from it.

F So, just flow with this. Clear what you need to clear as it shows up but don't put so much pressure on yourself that, "I need to clear this to achieve this or I'm never going to make it," or anything of that nature.

F The other part of it is, when we are doing this clearing process, not only are we clearing our own stuff but also we are clearing others. We may have also made agreements at the soul level to play maybe a little longer in order to have things stay a certain way because the people who you are connecting with in a specific role had a soul agreement that may require you to hold onto it a little longer. That doesn't mean that you don't do clearing; you continue clearing but you work on different areas...you just keep going along the way.

F And, again, not to make it a huge project...and not to make it a huge challenge either. Be the observer. You live life, you experience life and as you are going through observe the different things that come up and then work on the process of clearing what no longer serves. You always ask yourself, "Does this serve any longer?" Now, if we have any fear or anxiety or we have situations that we "do not like," then that particular thing being in place is actually serving us that we are not able to clear. Until we can get to a state of peace, then we are OK with that particular thing being in place so that we can move forward.

F So, in actual fact, when we're going through that, the very thing that we want to clear is actually the tool that is assisting us to get to a state which is clearing something else or getting into an area or a level of consciousness that we want to achieve.

F So not to see it as something which is "limiting," but rather just to flow with it and just be the observer along the way...and not to judge anything.

F Because that's another big obstacle that we run into: judgment. Self-judgment, judgment of a certain modality, a certain experience, a certain process, a certain program.

F You know, with respect to judging the program...in order for us to clear that program we need to clear the judgment first! So we might be trying and trying to clear to the program and judging the program along the way. But if we can be at peace with the program and see how it serves and then ask yourself, "Does it serve any longer?" and if it doesn't, then say, "OK, well if it doesn't serve any longer then I'm ready to let this go." And you will see that it will be a lot easier to do so because we're not judging it any longer and we're not identifying with it saying, "Well if I don't clear this I'm not going to make it," or "If I don't clear this I'm not good enough," or "If I don't clear this I'm not going to be a good example or my world's not going to look a certain way." These become obstacles.

F It's beautiful how when you look at all of this when all of this is playing out: everything is interconnected. And it's really to go with ease and observation of all the things that come up and not to limit ourselves to only clearing one thing over the next. Because a lot of times when we are trying to clear something it exposes a lot of other things that we need to address too.

F So, instead of saying, "Oh my God! Look at this list! It's a bottomless pit here! I have all this stuff coming up! When is this going to come to an end?" or anything of that nature...

F Remember: you're here for the journey, you're here to learn from this. Everything that's playing out each moment is serving you anyway...in multitudes of different ways. So it is just to go through it.

F A lot of times we want to accentuate it to speed things up and blast right through it and then that will come about as we address all the things.

F But as long as we observe and flow and not get caught up in clearing up one specific thing...and observe what comes up while we're trying to clear up one thing and be OK with whatever else shows up so that we can go ahead and address those things...and sometimes it can be layers on top of layers... But this is part of the journey...this is part of the fun.

F If you can see it as fun, if you can see it as,
"Oh, this is part of the journey.
This is what I learn from.
This is what I become enlightened through.
This is how I actually create new patterns of energy to assist the planet to shift, starting off with myself personally," then, of course, it becomes a lot easier and you're not going to judge yourself that you're not doing it correctly or that it's futile, or anything of that nature.

F It's a different way to look at it.

A Thank you, Franco. Our next question kind of plays into that.

A "All of my relationships have fallen apart in 2012. Even things like the tree in my back yard which I was attached to blew over and had to be taken down. My relationship with my job has also fallen apart. Does it get better or is there something wrong with me?"

F Well, that's the thing. You see, the whole thing is playing out to bring you to a state of fluidity...fluidity meaning no attachments to anything...just to flow with everything that comes around. Flow with your work, flow with your relationships, flow with your "stuff." That means that whatever needs to come, comes; whatever needs to go, goes. We're flowing with everything.

F The moment that we're attached, the moment we have an expectation, the moment we expect it to look a certain way, be a certain way or to have a certain level of ease, then we've created an attachment, we've created an identity, we've created something that is actually limiting us. The point is to be free. And to be free totally, we flow. We flow with whatever plays out. We have no attachments.

F We allow things to flow in and out...like the breath. We flow in and out in all things, in all our relationships, in all our endeavours, in all the stuff that flows through us. And when you get into that flow then everything just moves accordingly.

F So this is what's playing out. And for many people the same thing is occurring.

F So it's just about getting detached, getting fluid. Because that's our natural state. You're just returning to your natural designed state. Total fluidity. No attachments, no rigidity, no expectations, no requiring things to be a certain way before we can feel good about ourselves or anything of that nature.

F Source itself (and that's Who We Are) does not have to have accomplishments to feel good. Source creates, experiences, takes the lesson from that experience and moves on. That's Who We Are.

F Yes, we are here in a physical form. Yes, we have a mind construct. Yes, we have an ego that says it should be one way or another. Yes that was part of our experience. Yes, that still serves us in one way or another.

F But, at the same time, we are expanding through that...and becoming fluid.

F So that's the main component of that lesson for yourself. Now is it a lesson because you didn't "get it"? No. It's just basically played out in a way to just allow you to move forward and be free.

A Absolutely. Our last question is as follows:

A "In numerology we all have a number. Mine is 7 and my daughter's is 8. Does that mean that she is one year more advanced in life than I am?" I know that this question is related specifically to numerology, but I'm going to expand it to include all past modalities.

A As many of you already know, I have trained in many, many, many modalities because that was my journey to always search and learn more and expand and grow.

A All modalities, whenever they present with whoever the teacher is who brings it to the planet at that time, it is to assist to move forward. It is to assist with the planet to move forward. And that's what they have come to do. And that's why the modality is introduced...to help us to move forward.

A When we hold onto and attach excessive meaning to the modality, then we have not advanced. So specifically with respect to the question about 7 or 8 in numerology, does it really matter what number you are or what number your daughter is?

A For example, recently I was having a talk with my own daughter (who just turned 7) about our souls coming back, and she very clearly announced to us that, "Hey, that means that I could be a lot older than you!" And I responded, "Well, yes, maybe you are." And she then said, "Hey, that may mean that I know a lot more than you!" And I responded, "Yes, maybe you have more experiences than me. But none of that really matters."

A So who's been here more, who's done more, what you've incarnated in the past...yes, it's added to who you are today and the journey you are on today. But, especially going into the 4th and 5th Dimensions, let's not try to over-analyze and attach meanings to that. That all came in and everything has assisted.

A When Jesus came onto this Earth and taught about love...love had never been taught. He brought that specific frequency to the Earth that had never existed before. And he always said, "This and more you shall do."

A But humanity tries to latch onto something and hold onto it and that's not what the lesson is.

A The lesson is that as consciousness, as Source grows it presents what is needed at the time...and then it moves forward with it.

A And as Franco has said, what we need to do now is to be fluid, to allow things to flow through. It doesn't mean that you can't learn some wisdom from something that happened in the past. If when you're listening to it, it resonates and brings you peace, then by all means do so. But don't attach to it. Let it open up. Let it expand. And then move forward.

A Franco, is there anything you want to add to that?

F You explained it very well. But to take it just a step further with respect to numerology and all the other different modalities like star signs and all of that stuff...

F So just to quickly recap... When we come onto the planet we of course choose the names, the date of birth, the positioning of the stars and planets and everything else, where we are positioned on the planet and so forth...all of that is chosen...and also the number that we operate through in numerology. All of these are "entry points" where we come in. We utilize it specifically for our particular soul agreement of what we came here to do.

F Now, certain souls are a little bit "more advanced." And when we talk about "more advanced," we mean they have moved forward a little further. But we have to understand one thing, and this is a major component here and a lot of times it's missed:

F You have to understand that we are all One. We are all here to have different experiences. We are all at different levels of consciousness. We all will achieve the same level of consciousness at one point or another. Basically we are re-connecting, fully enlightened, as Source Itself.

F So we're all going to get there.

F How we get there, what path we're going to take is unique to each individual soul. Each individual soul has a certain signature, a certain path that it chooses and certain events and life-streams that it projects accordingly. So there could be young people who are much more advanced...and when we're talking "advanced" that means that the soul has achieved a higher level of enlightenment...only.

F Is one soul "better" than the next? Absolutely not! Because each and every soul is Source Itself in its pristine state, the purest form which is constantly expanding...and it's all the same.

F However, each soul has a different energy, each one has a different set of experiences and, based on the choices that have been made along the way, will achieve different levels of enlightenment.

F But we are all here to assist each other. So that means we are sharing information, we are sharing consciousness, we are sharing lessons, we are playing roles for each other, and so forth.

F` But, again, when you look at the whole thing, it's because of The Whole. Because The Whole is expanding completely...meaning Source Itself...meaning each and every one of us is expanding...together...at the same time...even though each one is having a different experience.

F Now, the other thing to understand about the point of numerology, the star systems and all the different astrological signs...they are used as an entry point and will serve to a certain level. But at some point in time it no longer serves and no longer has an effect.

F So you can come through a certain star sign and certain numerology and have a certain path to walk through which creates a certain alignment, with certain timelines, with certain experiences, interconnections with certain souls who come into our lives, and different playmates who we have agreements with, and all that stuff.

F But as we are achieving a certain level of enlightenment and certain things are being accomplished of what we came here to accomplish, you'll notice that a lot of those things, those characteristics that may have accentuated while we were playing out that role start to no longer accentuate.

F So that means that you may come with a certain number, playing out a certain accentuated path and program, but as you go along you start to notice that you've changed, you're no longer those characteristics, that state or nature, and the energy that you're vibrating no longer emanates that. So you are no longer going to continue to play that role.

F The key here is to be fluid with all of this. There is no higher or lower or anything of that nature. Even a fully-enlightened soul (like the one in my own physical form) is not any better than anyone else's here because every soul is, at its natural state and at its core essence, Pure Source. As I am Source Itself, so is everyone else! We're just at different levels.

F What does enlightenment mean? It means to come to the self-realization that we are Source Itself and that we are always connected to that energy and frequency, and we therefore have access to a larger library of resources because of it. Does that make it any "better"? No. We just got there differently and we are assisting other aspects of ourself to do the same...with their own journey...because every journey is slightly different. We all have things that we are learning and because the signature is different we are going to have different ways of experiencing a certain path.

F So when we look at it, again, it doesn't matter if we came in (at a certain entry point) at some point in time it no longer serves and it will dissolve. Specifically as we are going into 4th and 5th Dimensional consciousness, those characteristics will start to become less and less prevalent in our journey.

F You have probably noticed people who come in having certain characteristics but over time as they become, what you might call "spiritual" or more "awakened," the characteristics that they may have accentuated or played with before start to dissolve. They no longer project that. So they start to become different, in a sense. Because they no longer need that.

F So don't get hooked up on what number you came in with or what star sign you're under or whatever gauge that has been used in the past, those are just part of the "costume" that we put on...the different encodements. Because even each of the letters in our name have a certain representation with the codes, which is part of numerology too. They remain in effect in the same static way as long as it serves, and then eventually it becomes less and less a governing factor for you.

F What we need to look at is every soul who is in our life is a mutual agreement for each to be in each other's lives to teach each other.

F And when we talk about "teaching," it's really "sharing." And, again, when the sharing comes about, it's about self-realization.

F Remember...it's about self-realization.

F For example, if your daughter is more advanced than you in the enlightenment stage, it doesn't mean that she has the answers for you. They may share answers, they may share certain things...but ultimately it's up to each individual to walk their own path.

F Now a lot of times we might have people who turn around and say, "Well, I'm much more advanced," blah, blah, blah, and so forth, "and I need to be the teacher."

The thing is...you're always the teacher and you're always the student. There is no "true" teacher unless you're fully enlightened or something of that nature. But even then, you're always coming in in a physical form and so you're still learning. (laughs)

F And the key here? We're always learning. We're always expanding. Source Itself is constantly learning and expanding all the time.

F Now, of course, each and every one of us is connected to every single being that's on this planet and every other planet in all the universes, and so forth, and there are multitudes and multitudes of self-expressions out there. And It is all learning from it. So when you turn around and say, "Source is stagnant. Basically It's just forgotten and It just wants to remember what It Is and have an experience in between." No! It's learning from it too.

F It's expanding Itself. Everything is expanding all the time.

F So even myself who has come here as a fully enlightened, unified soul, it's expanding all the time. And even with limited resources and accessibility and so forth, the sharing is expanding all the time. Of course it also has to align with this planet because I am on this planet in a human physicality, but, at the same time, we are still learning from each other and we are still assisting each other through this.

A Thank you for that, Franco.

A So is there anything you would like to say in closing?

F Yes. I just want to quickly go through...a bit of a clarification here.

F I know there is sometimes concern about what people are seeing in the outside world. We're still projecting war, we're still projecting terrorism, we're still projecting these fears about a New World Order, a potential for World War III, also the violence escalation, and also showing that the government is clamping down, there's all these different agendas being played out, we're still poisoning our water, poisoning our air, poisoning our food, creating all this stuff that we're still playing out. Projecting that everyone will become even more enslaved, and so forth.

F As much as all of that is still playing out on the surface, don't get caught up in the fact that it's going to play out. If we are going to carry that energy, it will play out in a very limited way.

F There has been so much work done behind the scenes to make sure that none of this will take full form!

F So the prisons, the martial laws, exterminations through different methods, and so forth...a lot of those programs, a lot of those timelines have been collapsed and cleared.

F As much as that is still being projected, it is only a mind projection that is being done because we're still hanging onto it and we're still buying into it. But even that is still serving because it's giving us the opportunity to step forward.

F So for us...if it creates fear, it's not of servitude. So the thing is to not get caught up in all of that.

F We have a lot more power as a united force to turn around and say, "We're not going to participate."

F It's not about fighting it...or anything of that nature. It's choosing not to participate..

F And the only way we're choosing clearly not to participate is to not get caught up in the fear or that something has "power" over us. We're all self-governing here.

F Even the fact that we make choices where somebody else has power over us, it is that ultimately we made the choice to give someone else that power.

F But the moment that we are in that clear state of, "I am not governed by others around me," and you're in that energy, then everything will change accordingly. Not only in your own personal environment, but it will start to expand further.

F The other thing too is that we have to allow each and every soul to go through whatever they're going through...with great ease share the love, share the consciousness that you've achieved...but without the expectation that you need to change, fix, or do something for someone. Just share the information, allow them to see that we don't need to buy into this.

F And, realistically, as much as the government or somebody is still projecting "control" (eg. martial law or anything of that nature where we have our "rights" taken away), they actually have no power to do so. Because, realistically, they can only dictate something...but it's ultimately us who decides.

F And, again, it's not about "them against us." They are only playing a specific role so that we can wrap up our whole dependency, tying into those types of fears and restrictions and giving ourselves up to that "energy."

F So, in actual fact, it is just serving us to step outside of it. And that's all that's happening.

F And any other remaining components that are still prophesized with Bible codes or any negative energies, or alien invasions, or satanic codes or Armageddon, anything of that nature...all of that stuff is gone!

F There is no satanic codes in effect! It is something which now has to be ritually activated and is only maintained because of the fact that we're playing with it.

F But, in actual fact, there is no reign of dark energies that are going to take over the planet. That has been all cleared up. We have made an agreement that we will not go down that path. Now, even that, it was only a role that was being played out.

F So for us to get caught up in any of that at this point in time is only going to keep us in that old state which we need to clear up.

F And with respect to the ET's...they are just our brother/sister souls who are from other planets. They will make themselves more known to us. They are already all over the place...their ships are showing up all over the place...and some of them are inter-connecting with people.

F But the "hands off" policy expired as of December 21, 2012, but they are still not going to be showing up (in any great numbers) because there is still a lot of fear that people have to clear about them coming here to invade us, to take over us, to rape our resources, to harvest, or take over the planet, or whatever else.

F As much as part of all that was there when those energies were in place, they are now no longer in place.

F So when they do come onto our planet, they will just share. They will share their technology, they will share their....

F But again, it's still up to us to do the work that we need to do.

F They can't tell us how to live our life because they are coming from a different frequency, coming in from a different playground, coming in with a different physicality. Their encodements are different than ours. So to be open to that aspect of it too.

F And, the thing is, we are not in a position where we need to continue to project fear as our guidance system as we have in the past.

F Because the biggest motivator in our life...even when we look at it from the point of view of being "successful" or anything of that nature...the biggest motivator was fear.

F That was an old modality, a low vibrational frequency. And that low vibrational frequency always created struggle, always created competition, always created suffering, always created fighting. It was not strengthening and it was not expansive in any way shape or form. It was always restricting. It didn't matter how much "success" you had, it made you smaller and smaller and smaller because that was the energy. Because even when you "had" it, then you needed to "protect" it, you needed to sustain it and support it and so forth. This stuff has all changed. But again, it was because the motivator that was programmed in was fear.

F Even with education, there was always fear. "If you don't get a good education, you're not going to get a good job!" "If you don't follow the program and you're not like one of us, you're going to be exiled, you're going to be judged, you're not going to amount to anything." All these things. Again, the motivator behind all of that was fear.

F We were brought up and many parents are still bringing up their children...instead of sharing with them, giving them freedom to learn and giving them some guidance and sharing our consciousness, we are still projecting fear. "If you don't do this, I'm going to do that," and so forth. So these things are all perpetuating fear that no longer serves.

F And we are now choosing to step out of it. And the more we step out of it, the easier things will be.

F I just want to make it clear for us to not get caught up in all this stuff. Everything that's playing out is just giving us an opportunity to wrap up and clear.

F And, remember, there are still a lot of souls here who are in 3rd Dimensional consciousness and still have to make a decision as to which direction they are going to go. Either they are going to check out or they are going to participate and come into the 4th and later on into the 5th.

F So whatever's going to play out is supporting them, but it is also supporting us. Because as long as we're involved, as long as it's activating us, there's stuff that we are here to address within our personal realm...on a personal level and in our immediate environment (families, work, and so forth).

F I just wanted to share that because there's still a lot of energy that's being given to how things are going to play out. Regardless, there are a lot of changes that are going to occur. 2013 is an active year. There's a lot of stuff that's going to play out.

F Again, as much as it may look one way or another perceptually, it is always ultimately all serving us to step forward in that regard.

F And everything is to serve us.

F And, remember, we are mortal, we are beautiful beings that come and go any time we choose to, and this physicality is just one amongst many that we've had and that we are currently utilizing. Many of us want to be on this plane for a long period of time to go through this whole transitional period because this is a quite substantially "special" ...if you want to call it that...time for us to create such huge leaps...so many of us want to be here (for the duration). But that doesn't mean that you have to maintain this specific physical form. It can be in a non-physical form or it can be through different experiences.

F So, at this point, we need to flow with things and not to get caught up in fear...of even whether we're going to be here or not. The thing is, we're going to do exactly what serves us and we are ultimately in charge of how things unfold.

F So that's just a re-cap of everything to give a little opening for people as we move forward.

F And as we play with things and further updates come along, we're here to support one another so that we create this new world.

F The world is perfect the way it is at this moment... but each moment is changing it. Each moment is changing it because it is serving us in our new state of consciousness.

F Our consciousness has never changed as much as it is changing now! Every day, every hour, every moment, every second...it's shifting us constantly.

F And as much as it may look stagnant on the outside world, remember the outside world is a reflection of the collective. And the collective may move a little slower because there are still a lot of souls that are still in a stuck state. But, at the same time, it also can take huge steps along the way.

F And regardless of what we're going through at this point in time, the rapid change that we're going through has never been experienced before.

F Also, as many have noticed, time has speeded up. But, at the same time, the whole reference of "time" is dissolving anyway. Time becomes very fluid in the sense that each one of us will experience time individually however we choose to. Not that it actually has ever been anything concrete, but it is fluid; it can move fast, it can move slow, it can go any way we choose it as we're going through our experiential realm. And eventually there won't be...

F Because time is really a measure of change. That's all it is. We've just put a mechanism to record it and it's a reality that we attach to and use as a reference point. But, in actual fact, the aging process changes and stuff like that. Changes are changes.

F But changes will no longer follow a pattern. And this is the other component of this. In the past change has had a certain path .

F For example, ageing. We achieve a certain birthdate, a certain level of number of years (so-called) which is a measure that we should look a certain way, act a certain way, be a certain way, start creating certain experiential realms and so forth. That stuff is actually no longer in place. We may still be projecting it and still playing with it but, in actual fact, the energy does not support it.

F So the idea is that we are just going through changes. And the body will represent change.

F So if you are becoming a lighter body, meaning that you are becoming less attached to the physical realm in your definition, then of course the body is going to become lighter and your ageing process with respect to what the program is that you should look a certain way, act a certain way, that you should create these beautiful ailments or experiences, will no longer play out.

F So as you are expanding, as you are changing and becoming a much lighter body, you actually reverse what you would call the “ageing process” before. So that your body now represents more clearly the state that you are choosing to experience. So then there is no true linear ageing process whatsoever to take place. You can age and you can look older or you can look younger...and that can change along the way very easily without having anything along the way to dictate it based on “time.” So that is another component that has changed.

F All of it is serving us to represent a whole new state of consciousness in the 4th and then going into the 5th Dimensional consciousness.

A Thank you for that, Franco. We will do this again.

A And thank you to everybody. It’s always an absolute honor and pleasure to do this together with you. I know we have been together many lifetimes and that’s why we are coming together now to do this. Thank you.

A And thank you, Franco, again for being here tonight.

F Absolute pleasure to play with everyone...much love to you all.

A Namaste.
